

W. FAXON,
WHOLESALE & RETAIL
Stationer, & ACCOUNT BOOK
Manufacturer,
23, SKINNER ST. SNOW HILL.
ENGRAVER, PRINTER &c.

Class 091.916

Book L 763
V.3.

Oberlin College Library.

GIFT OF

Charles H. Livingston

Accession No. 226437

Mrs Good lake

Charles Livingstone

May 4

Open Library
Collection

"You speak truly, says Se Relelin the disease is old" we are to come on at once and not sleep in the path for he is anxious to see the now are small rapids near the mouth of the Chobe but the rest of the river the water is smooth

Dr. Herds of cattle graze on ~~near the river~~ the islands. There are three varieties of cattle a small Batikha breed and somewhat ^{come} beautiful shape; a large kind many of which have ~~with~~ pendant horns, loose at the roots; and a still larger sort with horns of a most extraordinary ~~size~~ size, apparently a burden for the beast to carry. We halted at noon at the cattle post of ~~one of the Makololo headmen~~ had a refreshing drink of milk.

~~From~~ From a boy of 10 who had charge of during his father's absence the establishment. According to Makololo ideas the cattle post is the proper school ^{then} for sons to be brought up in, here they receive a complete education; . . . Strong Easterly winds blow daily from noon till midnight and continue till the October rains set in. Whirlwinds resembling huge pillars of smoke from burning

3 grass are common in the forenoon We got nearly caught in an immabiged one. It crossed the path about 20 yards in front. The wind seemed to push ⁱⁿ into it from all points of the compass; whirling round and round in great eddies it swept up hundreds of feet into the air a continuous ^{dense dark} ~~thick~~ cloud of the black polarized dust of the plain, with ^{blue} ~~dry grass~~ herds of the new antelope Lishes; and porcupines with wildebeest, & zebras stood gazing at us as we passed. The mirage lifted them half way to the clouds at times and twisted them into strange ~~unearthly~~ forms as it did also the clumps of ~~Braesia~~ palms. These rich level plains could support a ~~large~~ population and might be irrigated easily and

The Gambese ~~they~~ ^{and} ~~get~~ from crops all the year round and never suffer

~~The loss goes on by~~ drought.

They kill the hippopotamus here with long lance like spears. We saw two men in a light canoe stealing knocked down on a hippopotamus thought to be asleep, but he was the alert and they ^{quickly} ~~had~~ to retreat.

There are but few of these animals between Sestete and the falls and they are uncommonly wary as it is certain death for one to be caught napping in the day time. The old town of Sestete ^{on the left bank} is in ruins now. The people have left the town

6

a quarter or a mile further up after their headman ~~Morantsane~~ was had been put to death for revolting the chief. Sc Reletu was on the right bank ~~in the middle~~ ^{near} a number of temporary huts. A man hailed us from his quarters ~~and told us~~ ^{to} go rest under a tree; A young Mokole with amazingly fast thoughts as most often happens, turned over to ^{receive} ~~deem~~ orders from the chief who has not shown much to the people since he was taken with Mokole
reproach; he returned and ran for the new headman of the village who after crossing to see Se Neleku came to us and conducted us to a house, and afterwards brought a remarkably fine ox as a present from the chief. This is a time of hunger he says and they have no meat but expect from soon from the Barroa valley. We were entirely out of food when we reached Seskeku.

7
Never was better meat than that of the ox Se Neleku sent. Infinitely above the flesh of all kinds of game.

is classic beef. Let the "Reclination" multiply, "strictly observe, the running bear and it will bring them on. It will make time then a passing comedy, the introduction of very wild animal, the ~~elephant~~, down the ^{crocodile} ~~lagoon~~, It must be composed however that it is rather difficult to sit down to a meal of roasting deer but punished however until it may be. On taking a mouthful, hands and eyes turn inwardly so as to keep them in.

9 in the farm, but I do not yet tell Lancaster, & I, and Helen are an unpleasant combination of smooth, bony legs. But what do they have for kitchen engaged a sympathetic Scotch woman of an Irish name whose family flourished on potato.
Oh they make the small potatos Kitchen the large ones. We made the fat Kitchen the bean The Ma Kibbles eat ^{all} the fat fast as that is considered the best, and affair & eat the team & last gave the pony or bear if they have any.,

A constant stream of visitors make up our day up in the village.
Several who had just afflictions during the summer have been the more aggravated in every way by all we in the spirit, & some drought has cut off the crops, and destroyed the pasturage largely, and the people here ~~are~~ ^{are} scattered over the country.

Brang the party with him Belong himself he took the suspected man along with him Men can pull them to death with the jumelaws; others pull & distance them until they are dead. The Chief Headman stands up and allows no one to catch him in his power but his son the Headman; the country has dry grass growing all the time grass & pine trees covering the forest. The climate of Shantou had resisted. The offer to be minister of Finance and Member of the cabinet was rejected by Moshotswana and ~~the~~ ^{Mr.} ~~Patano~~ of the Full Set virtually Seketeti, who then became finance, Seketeti, Vice President in fact, the conquistador ^{with} his own ~~tribes~~ arrested the chief and the ~~chiefs~~ equally guilty at the highest tribunal.

He has been abandoned by his friends married now but Mahelewa and Opposite to office now but Mahelewa and was unpopular among the black tribes

13

~~He~~ by the shape of his visage, but more especially by his voice and countenance.

Strange numbers are applied respecting the unchristian life to his person; one should have given like an eagle, talons, and his face is slightly discolored that no one can recognize him. Some begin to think that he is really the son of the great Sebastian, the power of the nation, standing in his usual mien in all the affairs of state.

"In the days of the Yuan Lien, S. Wang said, "A man who has no school for killing ~~the~~ ^{as} we once had little chaps, ~~the~~ ^{Elders} father, ~~the~~ to carry on the government of the ~~life~~, were the great ones, when there all and every thing they did with a smile country was ~~wise, generous,~~ ^{ruled} fulsome Sobietu knows nothing of it but ~~the~~ ~~underlings~~ ~~they~~ do, And he can help him and the the hole form is fast passing away." The Chinese characters give S. R. Little up. They, would have him to do punishment the ~~desecrator~~ -enable, I said to him, you must do that he has come to the world to serve God in him. You can't make he hangs his last paper. Sheally, you one to see him off his truck and mother.

 That was a little satisfaction we could have ^{much longer for} consolation of the company; he taught nothing to the ~~company~~ for the ~~day~~, and on the following day, the men all three of us visited him. He was still,

In the Concourse, which were originally high closet angles, there was a writing-table in it, before the slightly, diagonally, the King, the skin temperature is when the epoxies had been laid the upper walls about him, however has the advantage of his finger nails which have nothing newer than ^{and even in} the hole Gentlemen wear day long, nail's he has the quiet and gentle manners of his father, speaks distinctly in a pleasant voice, very distinct and appears to be a sensible man, and yet perhaps in the subject of his having been delirious, when there ^{was} or ~~delirious~~, ^{there} he would be mistaken symptoms of being affected. In the meat-eating & Monomaniac, "his Aunt's husband has had the disease first on her, and seen, that it did not give a strong, close to him in the cooked flesh of a goat, and he has had the disease twice". Hunter for Practitione of Medical attendance in The physician was blamed, that the disease was unknown in our country, and they should have no knowledge of it, and difficult to cure to be, we might call the punishment capital. This was one of the cases in which medical men are actuated by dishonesty and avarice. No man could be so foolish as to ~~want the consciousness of having done~~^{tried} but a good deed. — The disease manifested itself gradually, helped and forced him, despite of the new opinion, to give up his practice.

and they, and the aged die less easily, to them some of the evils of life impal-ing upon them, to injure their health, of scraping the dead skin off the body, it with ^{the} astur-jet bark powder, - to expactise ^{or her country} in her country, She desirous however receiving a hint from the race that perhaps the medicine of ^{the} white people or the medicine of the blacks might not make well together. She then treated white people, preparing tea for us, too, with the ^{old American} plant, The tea, however, guitar players all of them tea room had been brought him from Bangkok Mahele

21

The band music sent me, etc. & I carried S. S. William's sister was added to provide us with food up S. Kank, mountain in Aug. 1911. We found a black bullock-pulled cart on the plain later, in, Mr. Jim Yulin led us in the new selling horses at 10⁺ tuk-tuk or donkey, ~~but~~ ^{though} after we, that is - East-han-p. Tuk-tuk signatory paid him a visit. It is worthy note that today is much as clean as Sashie and 16, It was kept in the Balika country from the Kipar & Samanar, then brought down the country, The Kuchis do not go down, take men as far as for his wife, a wife Fashion was despotic in Sindh and Gujarat both in Sindhu and Pauri. The ladies like black hair though not fashion however, H. may be, The chief was great fine fancies and was married ^{pretty} largely in fine flesh, but has been singularly unlucky the nearly 240 gull and the gull, with the plover. At night, we shot the plover.

Next day, I found five more Mallards from Siberia, collected with jackets, and the down, then brought the five tail, in line. Then kept the she, at Parkers along the Sleepy station, had been with them They can turn back at the time, and clown them, but now on the check them than middle, did so, and after Englehardt, in the evening, followed that he could not understand why all the horses the Cheyennes had shot dead; he thought they should have been to get a few ball mules, like our mules, in order to run a herd of mules which he had heard run together than horses.

The young men of the Cheyenne body-gunned a jolly old horse in a very friendly fashion and one of them took the spear, and spread out both hands fitting in with the saddle and got full speed until he turned off to the right. Another of the Indians, then servants catch the horse and leave the fallen rider. I quickly climb up and return many thanks. The four horses kept at the stable till he is completely recovered, when of the four is being added to those he can keep in the house longer than the others. The two... are about of the same price as one and half up the bell horse they can often There is no year for them at present and but a little for green.

22

21

The Mamey sweet, the fruit, no dysenteric poison, like rice, small. ~~if we may conceive there is~~ food cultivated in this the native stock be food in the Atlantic centre of the Continent the food table but consists of - ~~holcus~~ sorghum - ~~Pennisetum~~ millets Maize - ~~Zea mays~~ Molasses Ground nuts ground nuts - under ~~different~~ beans Beans - cucumbers - ~~eggplants~~ ~~eggplant~~ pumpkins - ~~holcus~~ saccharatum sugar cane - cassava - bananas.

~~rice~~ corn buckwheat ~~flour~~ or sweet potatoes - tobacco - cotton and hemp = ~~not~~ wheat, rice & cassava, ~~that~~ potato & ~~gum~~ they have never been, ~~soaking~~ kind nor have they the garden vegetable stay ~~in~~ ~~it~~ ~~it~~ in a species of cucumber They have neither the extreme nor the moderate will win

Any of the fruit found here, the such as mangoes, oranges, lemons, etc., which have been taken from other countries.

For the best part of my body and the most valuable for the man of science must be ~~indebted~~ to the part of the ant.
~~that will continue so long for many~~ ~~generations.~~ ~~Science~~, however, depends on them, they have lost the other ~~of excellent quality~~ what I say in their turn, it ~~is~~ a secret to me, as it is of the other.

The weather

all the time the bad fate of the men of the Legislature, & the announced that then in the west suffering from hunger. They had no know, ^{the} and game cannot easily be procured without; desult meal for them and was apprehensive that, would hardly last to the middle Country. They did not know however, though in the hands to state one in which the force of the country is one to further the welfare of the young heathen people of our masters, Greeks & etc. & help them themselves, & etc. Among the Greeks we are among the most of them, take the city, the Chedde not intend to burn them and make them as slaves more heavily, likely it would say, the Chedde open to take him to speak before he left you see after you will be much better that better but unwilling to go off but, for the favor of the master, may Upon this, he says, "I am the poor, who shall be the first that poor people are born to the same fate." He says, The minute it was my fate in the people that he thought his wife had died he died but meant to leave them to care unweariedly with the human unknowing. With understanding the state of the human and the nature of the say journey through the dead. On the heavy affliction ^{affection} though the good man having the language perfectly comes with his band, and such soft presenting the specimens. He has some young men at watching over the hymn tune, he taught them and had him do spoke kindly him and now say it's he did There is nothing that in a shelter he would have with a principal happy influence over the tribe, but he was cut down by a worm about in a month. His thermometer would not rise then left man unassisted by us, Position. Some of the nine European, two dead & the others in a very ill of the few who have, but not a that have no signs his knowledge the native language, a teacher, he accordin' took the min' of leaving the country, but he up-did before he was had the hearing clear The native service is had ~~the~~ been ~~done for nothing, the~~ ~~and~~ the the tebar in their own country they, etc Mahalili has done the miseries went to appear, to have a talk with the But although the

 & for a history. The Mahalili whether the ~~but~~ they would go & be back with it. The spec. is therefore per-nit ~~it~~ him. There is no occasion for suspecting him. The person is in earnest. He has had all the symptoms of the fever ^{as} known to the surgeon.

Several times he excepted the ~~it was~~ fever of the official practice with else.

Schuster has well pronounced it in the review article, we brought you mine, and engaged a ship cordo not bring had to be in the way, up to the head like a beak at the end of which there was a thin pointed quill, about one, six or seven but when I hit the tail a mile or so back he would not return again, if a Cuckoo could tell him of the hole to which all the rest had come up to Sister. It was a good place for the best things for him and his pipit much to remove a coverlet, sat down, fatigued by flight on the slopes; but only one of them he remained, so now they are

They live a carefree life of long leisure where they were, many years all the local marks were noticed, as they have come originally from the country, with the pieces of human to be seen its last posterity, a species of which as amongst ours, a very great difference, with whom it first appeared among the human species, at Langmuir. In many of the old designs with a diamond, and some crosses in cold. They had here on the life yet begun, they built upon him black lies. The snow, winter, doth send the fire, but the winter, it, doth st, cruel me, like he comint to him the cold out of his face, w. w., sh. till he, which ^{is} just thy place prepared the hairy, highland, ^{they} was afraid ^{was} lying waste by there the malice would come and ^{rot,} stalk them, their cause before the scilicet with us, when fighters could not withstand ^{that enemy} the number of these beam-swords, you and Mr. Gould he would join him, you see, and he has ^{run} ~~been~~ in town (?) & the time will be the ^{waterless} 1st of the month.

They have as much upon ~~of~~ the ^{of} the as the Mackenzie has, even of the Mackenzie, but of the fish, he would take with them. He, and his wife, the girl he calls his wife, and not allow it a place where the daughter of his friend Hopper was living.
The Mackenzie are by far the most intelligent and enterprising, of the two,

58 we have met. Nine but have scarcely men remains long with Sebastian he, then despatch him to the camp.

Death in, the ^{doom} ~~merit~~ ~~freedom~~ of the coward If the ^{they} see a man run away from the field he rushes after him with amazing speed and casts him down, or harked till he return to the town or the ~~merit~~ ^{the} ~~freedom~~ deserts with his purse "You did it without die in the field, you will still die at home, did you? You shall have you wish" and the Emperor was instantly led off the platform The people were young men in general most respectful further The old ones who had many hairy bodies They have tough skin and have steamed them to make them the human like way of lifting said - Kipan fight that this country be said of them after having been long (up among) the subjected tribes have very strong the Mashona

With pleasure I accept and acknowledge using the old Mahogany carabiner and I have always in this paper in the back,

Were great men, and son of our Rock Menütit. u. b. kann auf jeder Seite

The hills are green. The way few trifling articles, he let me sit there - ha

Young chick-like when hatched, gradually

The subject of medical expense, history, found to be more plentiful in the Atlantic than in the Pacific.

The old Shakers were poor workers and did not consider labor as beneath them but then you never was it afford'd to them or set up by their master's. & Shaker is known to set aside the old Shakers to prove the plenty how he manage eareys had his Warren taught him to make eareys tell my grandmather every fiddle 2nd City Fair price to be fixed on all the other baskets & canes as made by the men & women's black servants.

and would be choice when they are ^{ripe} for eating. They are light in colour, have pleasant Consistencies, and an unmatchable quality of appetites.
They dress neatly, having a yellow Mantle, and many ornaments, Satinaceous like, the hair being smooth the World over; branching, thick, over finger breadth, and they coffee-maneat like; robes worn on their own ; soft hairs and coffee on their face, cloaks

12 on, by whom he has. St. Peter wholly had no place, and a bed which would not fit. The wings of the bright bon wings round her legs inscribed her well. An old fox he writes but it is, the almanac of bush.

She did not know the meaning of a ground, of and the poor, the place, of a way and the country.

The mean thy, old man, have many of cattle marry sweet of the prettiest ^{of the} spring girls An ugly old fellow who was so blind that a person had to lead him along. Then the husband of the boy, however, the young man, was in the whole time, the girl, the daughter of the yellow bird, at last had, a century, young, then him of "Do you like him? He is a... and the old man replied I take him as your father. The young man of the who happen to have no cattle must get a with. Come, come, be content with a boy, family, one, phenomenal attraction. This state of affairs, importance, he is to provide a dowry.

When the wife dies, the husband though the ~~wife~~ ^{is to care} looks like a ~~bachelor~~ ~~the husband~~, ~~and some other~~, &
- though the husband hands over the ^{in law} the ~~money~~ for the, a certain number of cows, not to purchase money for the bride but to purchase the right to retain in his own family, the children she may have, otherwise the children would belong to the family of the wife's father. A man may have perfect control of his wife's children through such

The parents are very nice and kind, but not quite so educated as some. His property is now the branch office of Miss. Weston's business, the business of very large size. He has a fine house and garden and a large stable and carriage house.
They have three sons and a daughter. The father is the principal part of the household work.
The mother does very little work in the house, but they do not live at a loss. They have a large fortune. Unlike their father and many other fathers in Europe they have no daily or piano practice or card playing. In fact, the paper 46

~~or~~ ~~and~~ I might improve the ~~old~~.

Few hawks & chick-bottled to add time over, so they rather heavy on the hours. I must get in some 6 or 7 hours probably, but we suppose secretly her and Mr. King bang on ^{Indian} temp., as well as the men.

They all like this, & I think it's the

The physician you sent the letter had it all well thought out and by word of mouth, Mr. W. C. Lee, the late Dr. M. Lee's Lecturer, It surprised them to hear that the English made an alloy of tin and molybdenum it. He had ample opportunity of obtaining the specific, by sending over men. They said that it made them feel very strong, ^{but} ~~and courageous~~ It produced such, the opposite effect upon the mind, two year since young men, moderate smokers, becoming partially idiotic. The preparation consists of a group of bags which are suspended, hanging.

 They are furnished with a small basket of fine twine, a ^{spit} bamboo stick pin fast long and thin. One pipe is also by, a large bamboo chimney ^{containing} inserted the hole through which the smoke is drawn, ^{Margely fashion} as it goes to the mouth.
 Each takes a pull which ~~the last~~ ^{and} handing it to his neighbor, the last being an outlet along the back.

119 immediately to water as he likes, the mouthpiece grate from the oil lamp, and a few hours later the pipes water down smoke from his mouth down the gully of the bank. In the June

The ~~Bamboo~~^{Hemp} Pampas grass, violet cushions in the dark atmosphere, of haze, which passes away in a rapid steam quivering words a short and numbing day, as they can grass grows. The pale cattle grass The pink shrubs and other grass, Sister Burke in upon the many mutiling of their daily life, and the bad time they had, like men and women especially at meal time for then they had the ^{double} special attention of her, while men eat and ^{earlier} go to bed with them. The men made an odd use of the spoon in supping porridge and milk. indeed employing it on the usual way, however, the part the mouth is as and I carry it to the front of the cage and which goes about the world.

We shall eat them whole of the ladies by eating butter mouthful "Look at them! Look at them they are actually eating raw butter with the raw heart!" They could hardly have been more disgusted by raw ~~fat~~^{an Esquimau} -tallow, -~~carrying raw~~^{tallow,} ~~fish with bones~~ In their opinion butter is fit to be eaten until it is cooked or melted.
The ladies' all use the raw butter.

and animal body fit.

Polygamy, the sign of low civilization And source of many evil, is common, And singularly enough approved even by the women who regard it as proper and desirable. On hearing that an English man could marry but one wife Decent ladies acclaimed Oh that's bad they wouldn't like to live in such a country and couldn't imagine how English ladies could abide such a custom. Every great man they thought should have a number of wives. Similar views prevail all down the Tumbes. "No man is respected by the natives who has only one wife.

A polished gentleman once assured us, The reason for this is double because he is wealthier than his neighbors, having the produce of each wife's garden.
Men and women begged hard for such things as they fancied, and were not at all displeased when refused. They probably thought there was no harm in asking it did not hurt us and cost her. gift tongues no effort Mamie asked for black buck roe he killed the colow in a zigzag, what told he might have it for a piece now Rows of young leeches, skins despoiled And biffed no more. A pike always stopped the biffing.

The chess pieces
 The hump & ribs
 The ~~long~~ spiny, or straightish, the new And kind of corn, honey, bacon and Mackerel from the sea loaves the Project tubes. His principal weapon however was a gun, operating with the help of the Cossack boys to shoot down the bush, quenching a flame which had preceded his departure. This gun was also demonstrated to the rest of the Shugraun men. The horses were all when there as there may be gathered together to young & old the number ^{being} allowto return the other, & after that ^{too} they clearly claim all the story of the country, which will now be given.

nothing than the engine, & you have the command of the ~~the~~^{the} ship, you can't think the engineers, but, we take up a course to the right. He works so fine all day, the men, we all like him "but" we guess when we get home much he'll make the men think follow the flag, the captain will always, we want to take him, he the opposite we wouldn't like, here the ship is supposed to be general and have the power of the king with his people, even for the "children require the guidance of their fathers against every ^{evil} ~~evil~~ ^{way}. For you are among his children."

Then I saw the law like the upper classes who share the profits of the exploitation from without understanding much of it, of the law under the protection of the the upper classes yet the lower, ^{flesh}, ~~middle~~ had a who have it, may therefore, have appear, however, until the ^{the} law of the land. Our own men know him, after disease in self, gladness also, then he is the man, also has placed by us for the Cuban government should have been when he, also came to the Cuban capital. They, though it would be complicated by a number of factors & the chief; besides, the Spanish were the ones that stopped at the C. They always called the Cuban one of the best.

~~Paul Schellie~~, ^{wrong} was the last. He, in fact he could repeat it. This can dimly preserves the elephant. Trajan Park will agree with this object in view.
Peterson shot a gun on his return from 59 and, in another, was lying altogether.

The two children were seen this morning Benyune with the latter, of the poor benighted horses entering us after our arrival. "They had found, ^{the} the place the Duke told them was true, and made it; they had seen the sea and the wonder of ^{all the} Benyune, and from just as he had said", the Portuguese merchants here from Kindigoo-

To encourage her to do with the S. Africa " made out in the ¹⁷th present, yet, not ch. No. 1, has been con-They have broken their over.

The night is to be very bitter and there will be snow. The weather is with snow. On land white bottoms; on ice, dark brown. Jacks are pale. (See the Shwartz's Klimm. Red on the head and a brown ridge on the top of the

They had a long conversation about what the undergound things they had seen - both and a week or two before that Mr. H. C. L. & I. staid at home, did not know they, But then on the night before we were at home we by no means despaired to avert them the teachers knew well that they did "They had seen them do it they, and what that nothing but water they, could be plenty that came, now that they went to see; but while people can't see or hear, they don't reach the other end of the and then . . . further appear, to be pretty fairly administered in the tribe.

I bade him not take the beans at home from me right, our men it had been with us.
The Medicine was brought before the Chief, all men of the tribe in great reverence, and declared that it belonged to the tribe the property of the men of the community.
In theory all the goods brought by the men belong to the chief, they say, then at his feet and make a formal offer, then he looks at the tribe, and tells them that all the most valuable ~~goods~~ ^{can} be had to keep them.

13 Tuba Mokoro

—
The ~~long~~ ^{long} men buy and sell big & take up, if I am of his time goods only day ~~good~~ ~~time~~, which you of the least is worth things, when have had visitation, having come to pine bank, nation does one of the villages on the way, he passes being fine in their then hand bags, it is so easy.

Each carrier is entitled to portion of the goods in his bundle though part of the way, and being cloudy, can be late to claim their gifts.

6

White Park is in full fit, & a black man was bitten by a ^{crocodiles} alligator

Another man found the same ~~one~~ ^{float}, in the river, & it appeared to me to be not a ^{boat} of this description.

The two passengers, his brother & ^{Rather} he meant to complain of him, & the other of helping the other, the man with the umbrella, giving him one of his, and taking up one of the last ones.

At tea time, from their Lagoon to them with the complaint of the water, upon heavily off course in the first half and then it will be difficult to turn alive, though the wind is back to the Tumulus, perhaps it can be done butman can fetch on the village and something a while village drops to right away, it becomes on the C in fact, the village may take place with the liberty, in order to have his own butman as it is often the fault of butman which causes, don't leave and it is punishment for him to be kept.

Fly and dined at the chief, and a party with the dash of the minister was invited to Cudjio's residence for September 11th in Cypriano's home, after days spent in the river, down to the 10th, carried in a canoe to the middle of the river and ~~shot~~^{spectators} fished and with the stream, the boat from the river, ~~and~~ calling the men they made ^{on} a ~~canoe~~ out to the river be heard, ^{the} ~~sharpened~~, The winter, crocodiles
 with muskrat, ~~water~~, ~~water~~, ~~water~~ is full of men & a few women, & children drinking water from a fountain, it

The next morning because the miners part of the clan - the Kukukuku threatened to invade the city in 1824. The miners, a small band of them, came up with the invaders. They fought and the miners knew they could not win over down.

Miners died about half an hour any thing like it before, & a man's brains lying in one piece on his bed, in another, they don't know what to man's gal. - man. Not understand whether,

Riding Star, who like a spirit can

The fire walk down with opening him

From night people come out to him

The dance. (Costume of the Indian)

- sides of the Loran, flapping the yarboes or other small round bonfire in the town, And a horse which has thrown over The shoulder, in order to the. The Head is turned aside and all the young pushing it with their arms a manta, jacket and the Loran but in time. Waited or shirt. The women take tubs in which are very clean, & they spend time enough the whole house up water to the sparingly, rubbing themselves with melted butter instead. They have of parasites, but give them all the flavor of melted butter. One sign of civilization seems to be, of course, in another. The following cloth creates a demand for soap! you can have a needle and some back to you for them. This being a time of many

9

On evening of the 27th along the Chay, Mr. Mac an helped get the pannier. They got back him, Mr. Mac Mervy, dares, carrying Spec. a small white hawk in the town.
The couple of Putines was busy building a large hut while we were in the town.
She informed us that the man left her about 6 days, & the woman did not seem a round time of work, & working 10 ft high is built & plastered, after it must stand up & dry a week or two during the winter time. It is insect called Poison Lampoon from Ceylon though. They seem to live in the soil and come up through the plants.

The tile courses follow. Some Spanish tile, well,^{which much larger than} The roof is made and thatched with grass. In the many bushes, mostly twisted up, and clung on the trees plastered in, and forced his way up to meet the morpho's feet a little apart leaving a space of three feet between them. He clung to the fence, he kept in this space instead of the true, as the dim is completely shall.

The inner door of the hall we occupied was $19\frac{1}{4}$ inches, high at the centre, the top being rounded off. And $22\frac{1}{2}$ inches made at the bottom. 12 inches from the bottom it measures $17\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide and 12 inches from the top

it ^{was} ~~measured~~ ^{wide} 12 inches and $12\frac{1}{2}$ inches, 16 inches deeper than the height.

the other half left it. The ^{height} of this tower has no light nor ventilation except through this small door. The reason already assigned for having the door so

was so, small is in order to keep out the mice

The children have fun, too, especially in the cool of the evening. They often jump over people's backs, ^{or take turns} and over the shoulders of the back ~~back~~ ^{or take turns} people they run past. They walk about with fun and the girls clap their hands & sing a little boy, past, air. They stop before each house. Some beat him on their little hills of snow-hill and other, make a canon, hum a round between the songs.

Like other Apocynas, the Monkshood have great faith in the power of medicine.

The, below W. C. Town is a special physician for every ill. He is often sent to.

There are women who have children; he has six wives but only one child, and he begs earnestly for child medicine.

The Mother of Se Kolehi has come from the Waialae valley to see Dr. Town about the last end flesh since the doctor was here before and asks for the medicine of fatness. The Ma'olihi women think that nature can easily part of beauty.

25

Mr. Finch says from the Capt. in Lucy ville, where he was, that he did not proceed to San Antonio & San Saba until then there was no chance known when we were coming. He also requested me to write for them. This, however returned in the tide, having had a ~~as forty miles~~ one hundred miles & one-half packing up his heavy furniture so that it behind at the first bridge from Fredericksburg, papers out of the bag, he left at Zenger to the 1833 had to go home. The chief man has been. Every thing in his house is safe as it was left seven years ago. He has not seen him and they had dinner at the City had so little to offer him except the ~~hunger~~, had no money on you before when he was here a week ago quick dear Peter, get me out of the town

- ever made up his mind to go, they The ^{you need not go} man to see him to day, they the Indians there for his health while

22 a niche he had carved in the bamboo, and the following May, from his bed he wrote,

In the year 1853 Dr Z. started from Lonyapet with the intention of opening up a path from the interior to the west coast, Bengaluru mountain.
Whether he should live through the hazardous journey he left with the Makalabuto volume of notes and a letter addressed to the first white trader who happened to come. The latter addressed ^{my} trader

20 desire to delineate the manners, & manners of the different tribes, & by one of them in particular, rather the Indians than the Americans, as they are more numerous, & more varied; the other will be on Native history, gathered from his own observations of years, & from information practical apptaining to him from the knowledge of the past and from the express observation of Mr. C. Gould Esq. on the character of the convention, & the feelings of men, which he had seen & seen himself, as well as of men, the amount of your remittance. On his return to the river he met with friends who had much faithfully I suppose searched each his property, told him that ~~four, two~~ Two only remained still Chapman from the Cape sum'd. The caribou, he, a creature too big, took to the hills. All they had given him letters & turned to ~~Edwards~~^{to} — where he was bound for England & thought of writing a narrative of his travel, he and with Mopat to make enquiry of ~~Edwards~~ at the moment of his last visit the track across that he had never seen the - Mr. Mac nothing of them. Setheka Kene had at Setheka Malak. He then took the way by a headman at Liyané, the headman on being interrogated said he gave them to ~~Eduardo~~ But he says, Malak never received them "He has often asked the headman's wife for I saw him take them myself." What this conversation is going on, oddly enough the Natural History column was actually in the Dispatch office & it turned up in a mysterious manner in the Mail bag he came for.

which he came from New Hampshire Country a year or two before. The last was Mr. Renfrew apparently with a ~~white~~ ^{a) Skill} ~~white~~ ^{b) Beg.} who continues of course to pursue his business. So one can suspect Chapman far better, not implying any wrong subsequent to this, he himself published a volume of facts in which natural history is pretty fully discussed however, not, of his own theories indeed, therefore he would, even no more than another man's notes than the views of others - even for so much; but at the college in which she heard of a man who had made trunks which were shipped forward. The man was from Waukegan, Ill., carrying full trunks but no such volume inside, went up the hands. Singular enough the volume happened to be in a Waukegan country at the very time the boy left. The other volume has now come to light.

X skeleton's health improved greatly during last week.

The probability of his being up this spiritual life. - That, but necessarily, we must be a burden and a curse to the world, till we are perfectly cured and have regained what the Son of God has given us. Look what I expect the Rev. Stein from Europe would be at the hour in which it has passed far over to Russia at least the more than a month and we acciden^{tally} got on the 11th of convoysed by Teshore but accompanying with Captain J. M. Sane

The former being sent to the facts, etc.

Diplomate Mission. T. S. C. ^{nearly} in one, & partly ~~partly~~ ^{partly} collect the talents of Tobacco - on the island
The Calle L. Martínez, garden at the falls for the next two months, the sun

Many thanks and best regards including a supply of medicine for her chest & ft. The wife of a neighbour has disease - and see if we could not survive without the visits of ~~Robert~~
- treated by you there it will be a (I hope) the Ching Shui Ch'ang, a large collection of bric-a-brac was down the river. He said we also saw a few pieces broken on the path.

Our cork gathering had come to an end.
A thick snow came so suddenly, we were compelled to return.
Many of our old party Mr. C. H. Miller, have you built me ~~the~~ ^{but} house I'd had the timber taken off & paid for Our man had been thinking, however, that the English system of paying a man for his labour was the only one else, and all west the English landlords had men they sent and kept at work then to be under a given rate where they could sell their labour for what it was worth. While thus they disjoined the habit of encroaching ~~them~~ with property, always, from side to and hardly man could discern them happened when I first visited on the water, what happened but found along the shore, & in the cane a body of his men - ~~had~~ in the water with a number of his men. They kept in silence till the end of the service God but were anxious to have it done to pray

 - their hands or asking a favour by command, a vigorous clapping of their hands. The way, and the like in silence! This noisy accompaniment had looked down with contempt the Jack-a-dapple of ignorance. Charly all has learned to upon the God, peace & all the happiness and welfare of the country. We set out the mind of the accomplishment, of how they reached home they will bring them to pass of a money paid.

The idea of what we may do with them on our arrival you will find possible to have more than one wife when he can get them, if you can be of those who have been absent several of them bring him the chief for have many again they thought back, in the last long days, the march must be like the march reindeer in a deep snow.

The men think the wives should be kept for them. They must not a little be humored, but let a number over than the five hundred who went their husbands. After he was eloped with other men. The wife gather their things and left her little boy among strangers, and that anyone has thought when he has a gun, & come and drive quietly, he has had a small battle on account of his wife's strength, by who he will be very much gratified.

small

X He had three ^{small} canoes to carry on before and one in the middle, him which is a rapid stream, to come navigating. The men were compact by day the canoes were accustomed to sleep close under the chimney bank from fear of the hippopotami; though nowever they sleep on the smooth bank down as the snow was on the bank of the river, the people piled the snow up, covered it up, the high water which came in the morning was by about one in the morning and then stopped in the noon day.

The comes now for likely appears on the 2d from some parts of the gunnake the the savannahs were afraid to follow the Ethiopian river it crossed the river the water most swampy was at night over swaded by all kind of trees

91 Caravans and soldiers lying across the river when the river was in flood. Still they go through.
They are by Mr. Meiss' Manufacturing Company our friends,
Mr. Luther Estes and Mr. H. A. Leavenworth.
They have very admirable ways of getting the wagons down. They manage their teams in a way to make them even amongst the best.
They never drive on the flat bottom of the river, possibly. On the night of the 17th we slept on the left bank of the Missouri again. During all the main prairie we were on the river bank at night and in the morning.

it was left next morning. Our wages, the hotel company's, Mr. Her. & Anna.
 - Kukuan having never travelled before naturally, they had some of the luxuries they have been accustomed to at home; when they lie down to sleep their servants, we called ~~and~~ ^{and} used to spread their blankets over them when a cold spell, they put their August gowns, ~~to~~ ^{the} down to sleep This is the duty of the hotel maid when her husband is at home. Perhaps the maid may do the same kind service for her mistress. Shanghai ~~and~~ ^{and} wrote name this flower. Enclosed partly Hope they will be very pleased.

When he lay down, this superstitious the wrong of his kind in consciousness and equality in study of which knows him, at least, utterly from the dark past, & all the human is very abundant with vice. Some days ago, myself & wife The beethove up and another day on the upper & lower jaws to mouth the when they went the day before, he is like wine cutlers. He will, however, judge fish as they are presented, found slightly dead. One can never purchase the unusually they are the dead in the day, hence for game. A lone smile such objection. The first as, boiled mackerel was the water drunk as soup. It is a curious fact that ~~the~~ ^{many} the species, ~~that~~ ^{that} do not keep the fish until they are already open in Europe, but begin the consider them fit to eat.

Some fish more than the kind of fish

95

With the river to come many of the fishing villages there are happy just from the various places. The people of the village can catch them there, burn them & then getting them into their fuel but the Mahabili cannot do so. The custom as explained by us, is that is, that these people have a medicine which is used in the fish traps, placed on to burn the feet, but they will not tell the Mahabili what the medicine

Makumpa ^{island} of all species ~~was~~ of hunting Elephants; his wife helped him on one animal and he released the man by name of L. Tulu, Adira. They are long continued dings; they took elephant the heads below the hills and buried in such a manner as to drive out the game out at one corner where his men lay in wait with their numerous spears. He had killed four Elephants and three buffaloes besides leaving several others which escaped.

17 During our last party we much the Chinese had been among them by the time; The, valances, valances in their looks, and in mind, & so forth the me the following day, a party coming to see her but three left.

A black leather woman who accompanied with the girls is a great admirer of the girls. Every pretty girl he sees falls under her spell with rapture. "Oh what a beauty, look in her eyes - never saw her like before. I wonder if she is married and usually I am given the gauge after the clearing or tillage has been out right. He has few more at P.M. but he hopes to have ~~Pentecost~~ more before long. The Bulka Chap. wishes to have again theater, with the usual hospitality of his govern-ace, young as ever, Meek & Main Theatre and the Young Men's Masonic Hall, and media garden on the island but as there is no time for it a basement suffices.

and may rise from us, by what he planted.

The holiness of his thick hand rested in place, a power in the so much power is allowed to underlay garden that ^{the} ~~upper~~ ^{as if he} had cast it the authority of Hunter ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~see~~ drew ~~of him~~, the usual course to his people, Instead of giving them justice or cus-tomy he took the malice of the potent handed it to his own people some of the nation here are at South Carolina taking of the law books of our country to teach, a part of which was bought away by the Indians, more indebted to the Indians than the one Baptist oppose white men have ever done.

The country filled with braves.

Eggs are a pecuniary investment; the native idea of a fr. egg is in our opinion, valid, as it is probably the case on such a small subject, the eggs greatest appreciation though in the country where the Indians live the Indians in a more depreciated condition. P/ We left Missionary on the 27th and stoped beside the river.

Mr. Baskerville under Mr. Blackmore's direction wrote of how he had won his freedom Hobson
great Cr. of Ropponi & a gun boat There are many magazines open here in the village of Blackmore's Post a herd of cattle and "a large herd"; he left us company for a couple of days by guide or moon way. All the soldiers are told you the war does not affect a few others below. The Frenchmen near this the hills, made beneath them, Pilau and costume. In the little was so, he had seen it it in the night the hill itself. It is just to make up afternoon.

and a high ridge, may do the job, may help us. Only the men ~~of~~ come to you support the story. He says Mr. County to have a look the next day & go on suddenly disappear in the earth but when we looked ~~but instead of that~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ that bank in height we saw down, so fast, ~~but~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ quite like gliding round the point than a stone like instead of underneath it. Further west just this water two miles, below which lies Granite from even Alvoratung a 162 of course he must see it all. He did do it but he says it was not before he small children were trap'd ^{desirous}.

He was ~~sick~~ and perhaps destined to be one of the last men in Europe for a continent. The nations, of which have an unshakable desire to please me in dependence, whether they think well please, rather than what is true. A nation upon the interior was once asked by a thickly, geographical if there was no man, man, in it, or, by mountains, yes plenty there, are they high? very high. Have they fins on their lips? Some yes, lots ~~the same answer would have been~~ ~~given had he asked for gold or gun-~~ yes. English sportsmen, think ^{good} coral well established home generally has a good deal at first until they get accustomed to more distance. in an African atmosphere.

Did I tell you about a ^{after his} animal of his black Rallardine? Yes! You will like her, panting to the heart of none of the animals fell though 105 part he live in such a terrible spot the people int'l.

desire, like yours who understand the country and dare to risked native freely they say, the following?

the hunting, "Oh, Dan, the native I think he would be angry if I told him the truth, he never kills at all."

We had an opportunity of seeing a little more of the local ha during this trip They do not sail during the rainy season Huangpu river. The good people of Shanghai have, a name to live in with a few houses at one end, the other a fine you can think, for we have now met the he as some porridge. You are but few good looking ^{young} ~~handsome~~ the Ma-holo village, and the Savis The Ma-holo having all the pretty ~~girls there the race is rather deteriorated,~~ ~~he has before~~ ~~it quite some distinction~~ ~~of kindness during each time however to~~ ~~the people, however~~ ~~but the object of the~~ ~~the interpretation of these people by the~~ ~~Ma-holo can hardly be regarded~~ ~~them as a calamity. It has~~ 151 store the ingredients in good condition.

~~Michigan~~, ~~Selma~~ having had a ~~Matron~~ for many years, however, about four, was placed in charge when ~~Ling's~~ ~~Divine~~ was passing down over the Zambesi "I am fleeing - ~~from~~ ~~Leibekatz~~" he told the natives cutting the country, the cattle, men (native)
it cut the people who were in the country, is intended by you all (free of the country, they come to make, but they did not intend to do that time he suspected that they meant to ~~attack him~~ ~~that he~~ ~~was~~ ~~going~~ ~~to~~ ~~attack~~ ~~they~~ ~~were~~ ~~able~~ ~~to~~ ~~do~~ ~~with~~ ~~him~~.

~~he~~ ~~had~~ ~~done~~ ~~so~~ ~~as~~ ~~he~~ ~~had~~ ~~a~~ ~~peculiar~~ ~~purple~~ ~~accoutrements~~, ~~but~~ ~~he~~ ~~suspected~~ ~~that~~ ~~the~~ ~~purple~~ ~~parts~~. ~~He~~ ~~had~~ ~~however~~ ~~the~~ ~~best~~ ~~cause~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~war~~ ~~the~~ ~~same~~ ~~as~~ ~~he~~ ~~had~~ ~~the~~ ~~purple~~ ~~parts~~, ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~contingent~~ ~~time~~. ~~The~~ ~~Bat~~ ~~had~~ ~~and~~ ~~the~~ ~~fire~~ ~~country~~, ~~the~~ ~~cattle~~ ~~which~~ ~~the~~ ~~Marshall~~ ~~had~~ ~~in~~ ~~his~~ ~~possession~~ ~~They~~ ~~were~~ ~~not~~ ~~able~~ ~~to~~ ~~do~~ ~~Cattle~~ ~~com~~

~~the earth. When I return to the place in the winter coming, the abortion will be over & later little of the earth will remain. After that the water will have been held for the Balkan which has taken up all the Practise hills to come to tea.
Many of the cattle work, wished Dr. H. to tell them the reason, so they confess that they desire the Balkan to be in interpretation and want to kill all strangers. About this the headmen~~

110

~~for the manufacture of the steel~~ after years of it is begin-~~ned~~ ~~out~~ going to witness the terrible ~~change~~ which has come over them.
~~They have passed, in the course of generations,~~ ~~from the stone of belief, through~~ ~~the iron of the heart, through~~ ~~and infatuation of youth, down~~ ~~the history of the human race, to the~~ ~~time it has an infatuation of the~~ ~~whole people tending to self-destruction.~~ ~~The passing time passed, But man still~~ ~~continues~~ they allege is the application of money that has been borrowed mainly

- ~~debt~~ ~~debt~~ ... Howard (Mustard)

~~It~~ ~~has~~ ~~been~~ ~~be~~ ~~got~~ ~~since~~ ~~the~~ ~~Markete~~ ~~by~~, ~~that~~ ~~it~~ ~~was~~ ~~better~~, ~~terrible~~ ~~city~~, ~~but~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~horses~~ ~~so~~ ~~many~~ ~~of~~ ~~them~~ ~~is~~ ~~feudalism~~ ~~the~~ ~~too~~ ~~is~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~uni.~~ ~~and~~ ~~they~~ ~~gave~~ ~~up~~ ~~the~~ ~~barbarism~~ ~~for~~ ~~the~~ ~~so-called~~ ~~city~~ ~~in~~ ~~any~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~countries~~. ~~The~~ ~~deserve~~ ~~this~~ ~~the~~ ~~death~~ ~~punalty~~, ~~they~~ ~~should~~ ~~not~~ ~~put~~ ~~a~~ ~~slip~~ ~~to~~ ~~the~~ ~~habit~~ ~~of~~ ~~Killing~~ ~~out~~ ~~the~~ ~~first~~ ~~tooth~~. ~~He~~
~~the~~ ~~man~~ ~~of~~ ~~genuine~~ ~~boy~~, ~~appar-~~ without them to, & and it could not be as far as they took them, ~~To divide a people thus is to alienate~~ ~~judiciously; to let them go out, country,~~ ~~and we have possessed us a sufficient~~ ~~of making them incapable to stand up.~~ ~~The third interest of the soldiers~~ ~~character without a doubt admitted~~ ~~one - they were far enough from the~~ ~~danger, than common experience, although~~ ~~with the knowledge of what they might expect~~ ~~it - the man who told me so told me of~~ then ~~they~~, and they, Burnt me skin, ~~of strange but if you come, I will~~ ~~have no lack in carrying, because~~ ~~the place.~~ In one village ~~we~~ stand an alligator; head on a pole. I (he) get in the incisor & ~~charred~~ & ~~burnt~~ the women when drawing water, And caught a woman, The men rushed to the rescue either the master or I stuck his spear in were went to a pole as the, drink the head ~~squeezed~~ their strangers ~~strangers~~ ^a strong, clumsy pain, as among all ^{the} tribes and among the Batikas, Those being 111 to one party always keeps by their sides and ~~are~~ ^{are} remarkably kind to one another.

~~Bratka~~
They act in following the sport of a dead animal. P/ On p. 10 in the way back they saw the Tschoukha there that by which we went up, & it passed in a higher country on the many hills and numerous streams. We encamped on the Kalamo on the 1st Oct. and found the weather very much warmer than when we crossed the stream in August. At 3 p.m. the thermometer from soil from the ground to 10 in. in the shade; the melon being one, 6° sh. and differing 40° between the two day temps. In notwithstanding this extreme dryness of the atmosphere and lack of rain having fallen for more than the last year. Many of the shrubs and trees are now in full green leaves, ~~and~~ ^{of various hues} ~~making~~, ^{one lovely} white snow, clasping off blossoms, at the foot of ruined Bulbilla ridge.

115

The men find the Maikhanga and some other kinds of ^{nature} peper plants

The Kansas must be said to be the best fruit in the country and after much want of ripe and weine will be say by the European who has eaten it ~~the~~ ^{the} catalogued part of unthreated fruits is as highly as the Native do. Africans usually very small and as who have never seen a hill except a small hill are struck with the size of our injinpear ~~large~~^{hercules} and the much higher catalogued of their fruit may be no fruit thing at all. One you men spared an eat in the Kansas which ~~measured~~ ^{measured} 4 1/2 feet in length and 10 inches round the neck. See also and unusually large buffalo we shot on the 3rd. One fellow running a goat still a little wild, it took a large amount of blood yet sprang up and charged on him with great ~~agility~~ [^] Fortunately he had just done so sprang up a tree, when another marked bear came and struck him.

The hand enough to have split both the ant heads. It paused a few moments, regard the man with malice fury, then took several pieces, a dash at it again, determined to make him oil yet. It took him great skill, an fine adroit skill, to bring it down. There had been more of the old sturdy, fearless hunting about in a sort of mutual fellowship; then down nearly horns have been ~~the~~ ^{the} stumps On the 6th we came upon the Tette Sandstone, having entered the great coalfield which abounds in mackerel Sinnans, ~~the~~ ^{the} to Duplace, a distance of 400 miles. Some writers tell us that the Coal Mining Empire will be well established in three centuries, after which there will be a decline in full, the British empire. Here China, as a center, at supply her future for centuries, yet come and hold Portugal won't see the 20th century She will surely then abandon the city In the Manzao plain, the city, so called to have, and did no longer at the Jumbeau town the Duke King the village glare hide And snarling fierce, at those who would despoil the abounding resources of the earth, & array them before the beauty of the Christian religion and the Christian civilization.

119

Simeon was the ablest and most zealous of the Sabellians, we have not ^{had} ~~had~~ ^{was} ~~had~~ ^{the lately} when he sent in his adhesion & all that Ellinick asks of him ^{he} ~~will~~ ^{be} ~~be~~ to form to the Truth with ^{him} ~~them~~ form to the Truth with ^{him} ~~them~~, when they took to cut the Tamise to attack & he will probably continue loyal to the truth. He is being to Foshore's mission was to ratify ^{thus} ~~several~~ ^{years} ~~seas~~ 180

Looking young & well now. ~~Married~~ of his own Batska country now calling himself more & less ~~the~~ ^{now} ~~after~~ Themselves maleslolo) of St. Lucia, long after. Sept. 19, Batska
 1. In the beginning he had the ga-sperty, the same bushy hair of the young man but shorter & then suddenly short & white like the previously thick the duration being dependent upon the Masikusa had to run for his life & part the thin among his thick hair & removed his, & then said returned ^{as made redolent in} home with mouth full a fistful.

Siamese people cultivate large quantities ~~on the banks of the river~~ of tobacco which they raise, and make bales for the market; they sell them, and apply what is left for a tax. The place is planted on two mts. on the bank of the Tunkse, ^{Siamese} it is a place at present, ^{the people} who have abundance of food live in all the good condition. He could tell us two of his names, but he was so much in a hurry for us, others we were not able to get.

127 man by his own name who was carrying them back. The men work out about 230 yds. in the day, plus between high banks carrying to the R. E. Every dump spot is covered with maize, pumpkins, watermelons, tobacco & hemp, and there is a pretty number of bullock-palms on both sides of the river. They salute us from the banks and passed by clapping their hands. Freedman had his air traps (a species present of corn and pumpkins, etc., taken) 111 a mile in length with island opposite his town; he has a population of being a brave warrior, less cor-taible, a great leader but he gives, shape, smell, taste than the Shewa of now the better. A hereticism prevalent among fathers against we have seen, it was the Muttar. His people more or less like as then chief. They brought in large basket corn And a little tobacco and a sort of green cattatum to the travellers.

One of Semusses, canoemen deserte on the way down after by, & got himself 125 before the inspection ^{new!} he struggled with the story, that the whole man had stolen the canoe. Shortly after this the Mung Siianian came into the village with 57 of his long spears, and a dozen men to help him. He said he saw at a glance the Ching man had killed him, a blow from whose "blow gun" had caused him to fall.

If you have all been paid and this white man an actor, the bidding money, and Sumeraine said little, my remembrance he had been drawn by his ~~problem~~, ^{of} cause cause the foolish fellow remained higher, and the foolish to leave ^{suspicioned} suddenly, with ~~curiosity~~ ⁱⁿ cast full and frightened looks Sumeraine had been very kind how he made him an additional present of a few slugs of best White Ivory. Moreover something else past your friends. When buying ^{for canoes} quarreled with Mr. Remond, we were greatly touched that he wished to deal with us and that they ^{had} been ~~but~~ ^{not} known General Gordon.

Our price was as large as that he had only the space ~~earlier~~; the two good the unmarketable; the other he would not accept because it had a bad smell of exposing and spoiling whatever was made into the wine, he said. And as his two large ones until we could buy others below. The best Cavares are made from the Treacle-trees. There are said to fruit. Some of the native will the pods in water and mix them with this decoction made in the vessels intoxicating qualities. In time, you happen to be in water. He landed at Mukender village to buy a canoe, they were having a gay time, singing, dancing, drinking and drinking their neem seed beer, at once a large party was brought down. The chief spoke but little; his sister did the talking and leading for him and seems anxious to show how cleverly he could do both.

Many tiny stone flakes appear at the edge of the river; they are well made pointed like arrows from the aborigines

129 while they are filling their helapots.

This is in addition to ^{the} Palgrave's far things Many times a community carrying off by a silly tax collector or settler like as the loss of these from changing water & issued by the Paraguayan they have the right to do, even a sufficient for their protection, & due time to reduce the People of settle them in the Master, opposite to give a people firmly and infest the a certain People to take up after Mass but the smiled partie mainly, shagged his shnicker, an d the nothing. The top come on one, see dilly! They are beginning to fair Large flocks of black geese are common also pairs of the Egyptian geese or pectoral ~~black geese~~, as well as open knuckle geese.

In some places the stony banks are dotted with the holes of Porcupines, which come out by hundreds at the pass. When the sun is up, the little, on the trees, they give them the appearance, being covered with a singular white foliage.

2015

On a rainy day we came up on the edge of the hill with a number of the cattle, then turned them. They were cattle men of the country, one year old and the other, fat & large. They take their cattle out they now these Basotho believe the Hottentot cattle, though it just they were in the crowd of these for and subject Basotho particularly number of the cattle present, made savages severely, as those who inflict an injury usually do of their step and Moloko ~~intention~~ planned them for ~~the~~ taking the cattle and they are the, that, ~~He came up to~~ ~~such a station a few days, since~~ he appeared My goal was as far as his house at Rancho he disappeared the day before he was sure that the Matilda Gang killed him. However in a few minutes, this arrived a messenger ~~Express~~ with the news who had This found him wandering after having given him supper and lodgings and kept him in his care, carrying his load for him.

On the morning of the 12 we passed a wild valley ~~and~~ Many ~~hundreds~~ of sheep were seen.

with numerous hills on both sides, ^{but} few in the village, we took shelter whose al. Alpa de ..., ^{is} ~~near~~ ^{opposite} ~~the~~ ^{opposite} with ^{lies} the village and ~~it~~ ^{lies} opposite the mouth of the ~~Kerung~~ ^{Zungwe} when we left the Tumane on our way up.
 Alpa de was sorry that he had no canoes of his own to speak of but he would have us take, so he gave us two pumpkins, one take, Nalim and ~~some~~ ^{and} ~~one~~ ^{and} told us to go on opposite if you have a fine large canoe 125

The hand what is, consider a long piece of it, a few strings of the ~~green~~^{ant gray neck} beads two large beads like marble, a grey calico ten yards of ~~cotton cloth~~, which trading party of Segunay, we will make do, for purchase, the large new canoes for the strings, of coarse white beads again at the equivalent sum. You will have ^{cheap} calico of ~~cotton cloth~~, and his boughs for the most difficult enough to be there are. These pillows have been living in China this has been commonly put in plump. They wandering here and there, also where we, Smith, have the flock of sheep are well and change the character of the inhabitable.

At this time we are hardly numerous in some places, we are where latitud and longitude. These patient lions must not have a great deal of extra calamity. It is, however, the year for high winds from fall up the prairie, with blowing sand, and no sooner have the camp is struck down.

out there it was an open port again, but, then coming at night like the wind goes down. The temperature of the Zambezi has been about 10° since Aug. 1st being 80° . At the water, being a little lower the small rapids occasionally which are probably not to continue the rest of the year. The men came from small rapids on the 17th and came on the morning of the 19th to the main series rapids of Munita. A section of upwards of 30 rapids from the shallows bank above the channel which struck the river across the bar. At the confluence also a m. che. & the course was very rapid & turbulent along this, because they often turn the current, an alternative one on a bar which takes a meander & then an upsetting current. We find a few short & deep bars off the Miller bar which float off down the rapid current followed by a run. beginning on the bar 10. In a short bay oppoused themselves, thinking slaves & the fighters. Green, and had some on head. It would have been a difficult matter I have shot the whole bird.

 A native called to upon the elephant and said that there was a number side who have had to pray to the Kankha gods and also to thank to pray for our safety while we were going down the rapids and when I tankly all be drowned. When one rested his life in Kankha with first paying the man who had paid him, paying the man who had given him the money, a certain amount back to him, saying "They were not on his side of the river and he had a influence, of they would come over to his side, thanking the health of the man. The master but he went off to the village. He then walked on, walked over the hills, to have a look at Kambaba before burying the caravans in it. There was a man there staying with the master.

water broken in some pieces, he ^{had} ~~had~~ Mr. Valentine, our interpreter, the village while he was gone there were heated to beer and tobacco. The men who know how to pray to the doctors who rule the vapors followed us with the of his friends and we in the ship to see us pass down in safety without the aid of his intercession to god which he our men now concluded we not wish mentioning. The natives who follow the dead Hippo, Camp, take a couple 161 miles below and having made fast to big trees launched our little boat to the R bend the dead animal. A. then N. could turn them and the rocky banks upstream camped the boat the hippo in turn letting them to follow us and we would give them most of the meat; ~~and~~ crocodiles

The ~~elephant~~^{big} try to do head at the hippo to avoid upsetting a canoe we then the man soon obliged cast it abreast & placed down the the count of nine Kariba
The country is nearly a plateau and on half the ground before passing a development of the nation, concluded that Uncle must be allowed to share in the adventures of the village. He slept the nights with the place where the hippo-was captured. The ~~alligators~~^{crocodiles} have a bus-time yet during the night trains, away at what no, up in the sun and there, the water furrowed with their purple tails.

The animal was a female and fat; it was ten feet in length and four feet in width in height. When the Kawita hills comprise the boundary between and a chain of a hundred miles.

There are no men, say 50, in the world worth and appearance, deep, etc., a single human being has been, the country being brought in culture, the Shahay in gum like sea in middle of Kaukau when built a tree house a hundred by 300 feet a day after you calculate gum tree. The forest on Camp by the small stream has made helmet like humble pines. The Pabbi Range which forms the eastern boundary of the Kauka

111 gorge posts closing the river a narrow strip of land.

Chituntunia. An hospital under Shogno kela old man & the chief Shogno kela The paramount chief of a large district ~~of an area~~ brought us a great basket of meat & a few pieces of maize it taste good; and here an a cake of the cruel money; his people seem to well off., a few days before they payed three buffaloes in full, it is the night and left one boy with 6 cal thence on. During the night the wind changed and blew from the other buffaloes while ^{hungry} like 145 not at all deinity in his food was stern, up the hill he was ~~the path~~ out, when he was of the time then by enlarging the other parts ~~I hope for you the Elephants;~~ ~~"he will do so quickly but he has no~~ ~~gun" come with us to settle and we~~ ~~will give you one "I am Shonakala,~~ ~~myself and come from the Estuary~~ ~~in his part", game quite kind~~ is in that a hunting abundance from the, to be in the Kape, especially and so it is in the hills - side when there comes inhabitants. The single day, the same to the northward, the banks were clothed right bank showing a long series of country running with melons, &c., water-lilies, Peltolobes, Marigolds, Kerriae, tulips, tulacips, ~~and~~ and Tropaeolum and Marigolds; Franklin and Guinea fowl and Maynas, &c. with the first sprout of Elephant's-ear which have here all the number, the size every few miles, we come upon a series of hippopotamus asleep on sand-banks.

bank; then later, he is, all out of the water and appears like a massy black rock on the sea. When this animal is hunted much he becomes uncommonly wary, but here, however, one timorous them lead the, a swim securily, always, however taking the pur--portion of the sea, just above the deep channel at which they can plunge when alarmed. When a shark is found take a sleeping herd all start up on their feet and stand silent.

Stolid

as with those peculiar looks of Hippopus. And now from the south before crossing into deep water, at few miles below St. Domingo, we saw a whale hippopotamus, in a hole, the skin had in a few months before. It was of a pinkish white earth like the of the Albion a white reef. It seem-t to be the father of a number of others, for it, was surrounded with large patches of white. At few miles above Santa Cruz small and a whale ~~was~~ ^{and} swimming all the time have great album patches on the scapulars, the same influence seemed to have affected man & beast ~~It would be interesting to find out whether~~

~~to what degree~~ ~~of~~ ~~the latter,~~ ~~that in the sepia feathers of the cap-~~ ~~seen in the tree covered~~ ~~etc.~~ ~~The tree he~~ ~~at the island of~~ ~~Tubackohoro~~

Kakabie, opposite were ~~seen~~ ~~the~~ ~~gray~~ tufted. The raven, lammergeier, night

There are many tame pigeons in the village. ~~Seconding~~ ~~to~~ ~~see at~~ selected the little red one which we took to shore. The woman drew water from the well from time till the day. A pretty little one - and red

Legend with bright blue tail running

The only cormorant this last after insects. These smaller creatures, ~~pla-~~ from good service man by eating great numbers of the destructive white ant to ~~an~~ the ~~country~~ both ~~not~~ last, is often

At noon of the 24th we found Segunda in a village with the same body of his said that ~~the~~ 210 elephants had been killed ; he ~~had~~ killed during the trip The numbers of animals seen renders ~~the~~ elephants, many of them over forty ~~to~~ possible a small number, after which, the ~~he~~ reports that Kafue, he now thinks, constitutes the Country of the Tumbus whose ancestors had migrated from the south. They have a ~~so~~^{so} Republican form of Govt, steadily but I think can be effected by the Virgin + the upper New England giving, but ~~regularly~~ but cloth to hand over with breakage, it for young men, should be the only good they have here. Some friend understanding to place between them and to feed them at home but take away. S. you shall have the greater Northern branch. We are unacquainted with our boast, often call the species ^{ad vice & it does} ~~advice~~ ^{advice} ~~it does~~ ^{advice} ~~it does~~ Lamia for but unfortunately, he can furnish any more accurate account of the conduct, or the price, may have been and his statements are not reliable ~~he has been~~ among his stock goods ~~are nearly, at least, they were~~^{were} ~~very~~ ^{cheap} useless investment cloths, & sufficient material for the a party ~~country~~? & price when no one had the figure, or the face, or cause for ~~they about~~ the antique manuscript time. Separately, picture collected day of the auction, it was the ~~expensive~~ ~~but~~ from the same He, cloths got him out think among the Banjais; he and them all agony in the place where you might have got past them, the steamer found this Mandir and took up the air to proceed with the vengeance of man & the king all manner of evil, as a house, people & property, cattle, have been guilty, of Miland and had to pay heavy fine & even I heard for his wife of the King, etc Rs. He uttered however having heard that he has killed Upayana and (Lakshmi) having done ~~the~~ the next went in his absence ~~to~~ ~~not~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~day~~ his name actually got naked up in the afternoon ~~then~~ in case

- keeping the hands of some of his slaves ~~who had told~~ ^{Telling} Tama Rama which drinking because then one night that they would go and kill the chappu him.
His partner had not thought of this when we saw him on our way up for he tried to drown the man deliberately, that man they had put the rifle man in. ~~Segurah, he~~ ~~attacked~~ ~~by~~ ~~to~~ ~~say~~ ~~flat of another Canes factory~~ ~~away from the river.~~ He found him, 155 Slaves were well & strong, and intended to carry a number young men to work ~~up to~~ to blockade their ^{it} factory.

The Bar area is full of islands now. On these are many buffaloes & fences etc., attracted probably, by fresh young grass. It shot me with foam of the 27th. ~~There was~~ Thunder, clapping as usually happens in this the next day the meat spoiled to a condition of no air.
Indeed, the climate, not fit for eat well running; hunger however with a sole but want, makes the body a man, skin & bone, nail written wings sweet

From yell banana, Mr. brought us a present of Meek and fowls as a gesture on his island on th. 28th. Then made of our bullock we, ~~left~~ ^{left} ~~practically~~ They ^{to} chapter the thigh with one hand white approaching ~~and~~ ^{on} ~~and~~ after bitten, down before us. This ~~was~~ ^{Took place} the same day when the hand presented to our men that when they made a present ~~isolation~~ and also on their departure. They cap-the day, the head of the ~~tribe~~ who the ~~tribe~~

157 that it was designed to move, but with definite intention. At the other, the looker out first for his family, and if they had been the cause the, would ~~not have fled to the woods where~~ ~~they could not be found,~~ After 5 hours sail on the mough.
29 - The river became narrow again and the channel laid out in rapids affectionately. In going down this rapid sent by skeleton the men of the canoe behaved in a noble way. The canoe was broken by rocks, & it rolled the 358

Jobbing up mid current raped a huge pine totted over & fell felled ~~the cause of~~ it. With great precision had laid within a minute, hastened to go to business. It by instant jumped on board, and said to the man, who took him the same as the white man must be saved, "I can't win here but that the "jump out or hold on to the cause," Straining every they could find the strong cause down the swift current to the foot of the rapid where the other causes would ~~assent~~ ^{assent} to ~~assent~~ getting it ashore.

Though the buoy N. they had lost though very stiff was well handled.
This rapid is upwind. On the next day the Columbia pass. and then we descend other, below. The canoe, had to be unlashed at the last one and the gorilla run about a hundred yards, ^{brings} off the stem over ~~over~~ ^{down} the last falls down the shore the stem going in into the 6 knot current. We then and go under there be dropped except one man who clung to the low end was kept until the middle of the day, held on when he left the house to, I will describe him by letters of which he ought to be known, and was swallowed up in a few seconds, by a raven, which perched on a crumpled sheet of iron chain below the cage; but as he rose to the surface the thin time and snatched him. The dove lay on the first number of the ladder stage marked impure. There a bit given by a bird 2 ft from the ladder edge the has the same shiny black glaze on the surface. Many small herds are seen on the hill side. There is a blade of grass at the end of the dry season after succeeding a severe drought. The grass on the tops of the hills, however, is scattered over with bunches of green tufts, a few patches and scattered in the upper stories of the hill where a few were gathered from the ground for a camp of day when the narrow

The Melanesian terms may be 20 miles arrived at in length. The tract the Zumbos at the mouth of the river was on the 1st of October. On the waded the river with ease. The water being struck up the river. A buffalo was shot on an island opposite Payolas, the ball lying in the spleen, ~~so far~~, and found to have ~~long had~~ ~~had~~ been shot in the spleen some ~~before~~ time previously for he found all his bullet ^{was} embedded in it, the bullet being entirely healed at great deal of the place is floating in the river at present ~~the~~ ^{many} pieces inhaled ^{yet} ~~at~~ the right bank now, still the game is very abundant. As we were taking breakfast on the morning of the 2^d the Mambu Kazai came with men, must stay, must have... to buy black mail we often pay more than wood or meat in cash, because, Bulan an English name. Oh au you, he thought we were Bazungas (Portuguese) then the people do both payment him, And apologize for his mistake Bazungas is applied to all ~~They are Portuguese men, while men in~~ ~~Bat~~ ~~generally, the Portuguese are bad,~~ with me these people don't see ~~it seems to be stuck to them at first~~ 164

But having done so much to pass for Patriotic usually made a quite the English, in that ~~it~~ of land that would enough line of demarcation by saying ^{and} we are English, ~~that~~ the English did not ~~and all the black people~~ ~~buy people~~, and wished to pass a st. j.
The Slave had. us together.

We called on our friend a lawyer on passing; he provided a hut for us, huts, new mats, spears on the floor but we bed time we were hurry, on as the rain was near. "See they ^{near} eagerly tuguriel in old Connellon" And we we to have plenty of rain this year?"

We consider, that in the course of time, the men, become ~~more~~ ^{more} ~~wise~~ ^{all} ~~can~~ see through them, because ~~they~~ ^{they} ~~will~~ ^{will} ~~know~~ ^{know}

We know nothing but the usual indications, that it begins to more than themselves - Some ~~inhabitants~~ ^{accidently}, ~~think~~ ^{that} ~~they~~ ^{they} ~~will~~ ^{will} take advantage of their credulity to them ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~order~~ ^{order} to ~~deceive~~ ^{deceive} them, then they gain temporary applause but the natives are usually shrewd ~~so~~ ^{so} ~~as~~ ^{as} ~~to~~ ^{to} ~~detect~~ ^{detect} ~~some~~ ^{some} discrepancy and no one is duped but the the ~~latter~~ ^{former} ~~feared~~ ^{feared} for the past year white man himself -

^{It's been} blamed for driving the clouds during the great drought away, and had to pay a heavy fine to the Pindore ^{for} an atonement for his offence

~~it's~~ - the ~~latter~~ ^a ~~few~~ ^{years} ~~ago~~ ^{ago} that ~~especially~~ ^{especially} of ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~young~~ ^{young} ~~tribe~~ ^{tribe} ~~of~~ ^{of} the ~~country~~ ^{country} ~~of~~ ^{of}

~~to about 7 p.m.~~ It then began on the night of the 4th after which the wind continued chirping all night. On the day down the river and in far thunder, lightning, the rain The temperature of 67° on a water-cured net having, that of the river being, 78° has, falls 7°. Then the thunder became still, all day, there was the sun here and there, darker, and became bright, clear, clouded.

The hippopotamus were very scarce as the natives have them on the ground,

Having got the oars & shells on board we had much trouble getting them with us but we made out at last with greater ease; it was a fine fair wind reinforced by the hope of getting all ~~the~~ ^{of the} fat for butter ^{which he had no time} ~~with our hands~~ dry cakes of native meal and a choice peacock dinner, but after the carcase with the rest of the utensils, ~~utensils~~ ^{the} fat & so, ~~they had been washed~~ ^{were} gone. However the men very much enjoyed themselves ~~for~~ & number of hours, & came to the conclusion of selling it ashore ~~there~~ ^{the} road along the & asserting that it was all shallow water. They looked towards the land but could see no one over the prairie, the rope we had made fast to it in the as they said, an encumbrance, it was ~~so~~ the ~~best~~ it off the high bank to the unloosed

~~so~~ to the ~~bank~~ and went down the were ~~water~~. They were all shallop, or talky, as long as they could back when suddenly, as the ^(B) canyon intended, it plunged into a deep hole. ~~and~~ where the ~~Malcolms~~ ~~water~~, all jumped in after it.

One caught partially at the last and grasped grasped a post on a third ledge. A ^{higher} dip in it by the hitman it would down in spite of all the clouds etc." Indians of feel his popularity in the last attempt & prediction and grazing can't see that, ^{however} The hippopotamus died in Sept' on the far west a mile below. The Boar was shot on the bank and despite our right-of-the-best, "it might have been shot by somebody else", Our men took a little and made a collection.

There come into existence with water & fine no leek which was shot in the 170 crocodile

Ruthless vicious, ~~as~~ ^{the} animal ~~will~~ has his eyes, him for the moment ~~apart~~, taken back by eye of he clapped beside the creek where he was feeding, it seized ~~and~~ ^{and} clapped him into The water which was not very deep. The Murky wounded animal made a desperate plunge and ^{crocodile} ~~hunting~~ ^{the} ~~city~~ down yards the hundred a leg it, his jaws to escape the hunter the cutters jumped into the tree and far away from ^{crocodile} were on the ~~elephant~~ ^{crocodile} gave chase to the balls and oil with cotton, The auto truck

drawn a little larger, his plan to drift in the river, was in one of the canoes, to him as here. Below Kukulele and at the base of Hauapee are mountain peaks, ^{several} ~~not seen~~ upon the ascent.
 Several small farms appear on the right bank of the Jumbee. Chitina Cheea treated us with great hospitality, and we were much pleased with his kindness.
 When they came this way on a trading expedition to cut the shag of the Bay, ^{all} ~~for us~~ ^{for us} settling them in the affair of the they will send over to Chitina with you may forth, on his plan, and will do him no harm. P. Martin rapids at the east end of Chicora Kibulang ^{the} river, and went down the river narrowed into a groove 80 or number of miles, until the navigation ~~to 80 yards wide~~ became difficult and dangerous, a fall of 15 feet had developed many

- cataracts in our absence Two gunboats passed safely down a dividing ^{up}, Narrows channel which has a wharf & the rocky partition between ^{its} two ~~ends~~ at the foot of the entrance & stanchions - The hole in the wharf opening & then glutting ^{up} The Dr. Canna ^{canoe} had seem to be drifting, the back with the whale jaw the utmost exertions in spite of all the men ~~could do~~ with the paddles

We were all in Kibulang at it a picture, the men saying "look where more people have to walk & the water is here in Crash time for me now, Dr. Kibulang

During the fight, they had seen some peculiar things. In the last engagement the Americans were with Rebels, or targets, but the fatigues of a day, much over the intervals, so long, so cheap, the Indians before night at H. & M. gett harnessed like horses, though they have enough time for the day, and there, after the march, the again, One of the last days, they from which near the Line. Through the principal It has no quaffas, blood, water, oil, den Key, who was with him at the inauguration, admitted, "It would be like cutting down himself, because he did not live without man and his best companion.

He met a large trading party of Aborigines on their way to Zumbá; they had a number of Marajaua women with them. Then the King had made last to one day up, to be sold ~~at~~ fairly. The headman after having been asked if he was well with great kindness; after the usual habit, he went up the hill across the valley in a long line, called on the way the other horses, to eat supper first, and not to let the way be taken failure by a passing horse taking the food. There were 8 deer, 8 mares a foal, 6 geldings, 10 colts, 1 goat, 10 cattle, 10 hogs, 10 hens, and 10 fowl, all in a half a acre, and occupying about a dozen trees. dinner, two men, 4 children, the men itself. They brought from the farm

He had his passage on the 21st & the 22nd reached Sydney on the 23rd having been given a little cold & sunburnt.
The English sailors left in charge of the ship were all as he expected and more than the timber-harvesting This form however a failure, the Englishmen ship later slaughtered when it reached meat and waste of drying fish. The greater number, however, had no misfortune or disappointment of eggs, but the two.

Monkeys, &c., inj. eat all the eggs.
A happy clan, come up to the night and wash the vegetable garden, The sheep like with their collar patch when it comes place an eat all ^{crocodiles} escape the stems, and then the ~~crocodiles~~ comes off the sheep and the water.
She then falls. In the morning she was equal as Guanachos, & Pigs, tears gentlemen having an altered opinion of the ingenuity of English sailors, the former said that British rule and beginning of the Kien-hu to put on the colours, which he will do off. "I think I know him well. One whose father was a blacksmith, it's very easy you have only to put the bridle on the pine ~~The Portuguese writing the name of their~~ ~~country and naturally calling it like~~ ~~the country they fit.~~ A great fire of wood was made on shore and the unlucky bairn put ~~over it~~ ^{over it} ~~the heart~~ ~~to secure~~ ~~it.~~ ~~putting~~ ^{after} the hand down upon him, it ^{after} ~~put~~ ^{after} Jacks ^{after} all arrangement

The boy can't be placed when he took them out of the fire. He will take him away in time. "This is the baddest chap ever I got into. What shall we do?" They stuck the pieces, tip the m' with robin and sent it back to the owner.

Day, it marks, could deposit with the wind hole change, in the, to pass it.

They would be engaged in settling a bargain; being at the market
The price of provision, they have the College but no water, & the water-tower refused to leave the ship till he got some ammunition, but finally the captain of the mine, Mr. Miller, saw this, and sent up his boat, took him ashore and gave him a spacious cabin in the mine-shanty, at the top of the hill, in a thin bay of trunk trees, where there was no water, so he pushed off with the boat to the Reserve accodile to camp a moment.

He got a gun, his chaps, a hammer and a hatchet and back he went with him which he shot a few 15 think, she has up to her nippes off her leg at the knee, they took her in boat, two days. Then ~~she~~^{limb} came as they came on. And the day of my better day, of that, the sympathet.

^{suffering} the poor woman gave her a glass of rum and curia. her tribe had, what money the, from the paper about her having off the budget and left her tribe "I believe when we are but make her angry with us for saying her story, or how she had lost her leg."

183

The ~~order~~ on the two countries, he says 183 stated at the end of his statement

Indigo and cotton as staples, say,

These men can never do enough for the country, they know how to keep them all in check but ~~in the slaves~~, ~~and~~ clean them ~~gives~~- nothing else of what possible use was it to send agricultural ~~implements~~ implements for men like these

The slaves being more like the Africans and the Indians at Little Rock, and the black slaves in the South

The slaves in the Slavemaster states had work to keep the slaves up to their went to have a long day; though pump enough, the bay being all the time turbulent, filling along & we assured that

 And in a few days we ~~had~~ that boat returning "She can't be worse than she is now." But on the morning of the 21st grounded the unfortunate Catherine Grounded & filled ^{she} On ~~the edge~~ of a sandbank, ~~the~~ emptied now but being off; The sun was down was visible the night and all the time it was of the moment every hour day was the last hope of the Master the day the Master ^{had} ~~had~~ ^{had} of the public 185 goods they had no time to rest and encamped at present宿營 at the village of Chumba. Commandant Captain

and Sister, ~~the~~ ^{the} wife of the
To be again 2/ ~~and~~ ^{the} wife of the and his wife of Kafu, ^{of Kafu,} of Kafu, belongs to the Commandant had just returned from a hunting expect him to go with the Commandant after Kafu, been away the greater part of a had taken inland year. They took a number of animals and a large quantity of game.

be up, they said.

186 to the ~~other~~ ^{the} M. S. Wilson, Mr. K. K. K. [unclear] Should a Kaffir war be got up there ~~more arms will of course be credited to the Mission~~ ~~Chiefs & P. C. H. so that it will~~ they had wrought much ~~destruction~~ ^{and} death further, a financial ~~loss~~ ^{of} sheep and goats need of ~~protection~~ ^{protection} ~~but~~ fine cattle, ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~is~~ ^{the} ~~country~~ ~~country~~ in addition ^{the} commandant sent a splendid white bull to ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~country~~ as a token that the traders & he ~~should have~~ ^{had} ~~a~~ good time.

~~He~~, however, ^{being} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~country~~ feared the ~~country~~ ^{country} would, & for one on the camp meeting, & most of them were killed. In this way, however, they had to pass through a the court; all the cattle died the white mule perished within two days from the first night he got into the ~~or~~ ^{of} Sennar had been eaten of the slaves, ~~the cattle~~ either because they became lame to, or because the drivers were hungry, ~~and~~ ^{from} the commandants ~~were~~ ^{had} collecting from them was unable ~~to calculate~~ ^{you be at} calculate his losses - but intended to imprison the slaves who ~~had been held~~ ^{the other time} as usual thought in the of their own comfort the expedition had been a ~~success~~ ^{in part} them of their masters gain on 187 D/ We went to the Kingme on the 4th Jan' 1861; a bag ^{a bag} ~~of~~ of ~~goods~~ bag and custom house ~~had~~ ~~agreed~~ ^{agreed} had been erected during our absence, a hut also

188

~~and found~~ for a black wren cap and three pectorals. By the time he had

- Measuring the distance from the church to us we soon began getting into his house. As I said, we took up residence in the eastern house which like the other buildings is ~~built~~ ^{is} a small square hut of Mangrove stakes or canes with thatched The whole camp consists of huts; it does not they break but a little will fall and ~~there~~ ^{there} being few vines however the strength of huts.

a ship we had been to see the true person who found in the heat what her hair, our usual trick, did not do a year or two ago, ~~but, taking her~~ ~~part~~ during the ~~business~~ meeting ~~Look like~~ ~~that was not done~~ ~~it is owing to~~ of fear of reading article, written when a purple fil had come up at the learned editor "Come what will wrote an emphatic critic ~~and a sturdy, frank~~, "One thing is absolutely certain Lord Palmer will never be seen 'more or again' a and get back to you of the same. The information in the C. S. ship has come home at the headq H. H. Government, ~~very~~ ~~treacherous~~, ~~trust~~ of your reliability, and the ~~accuse~~ number a much, ~~for~~ unreasonable of your ability, and ~~desert~~ to him.

Come for ~~over~~ the next time we found a boat ~~nothing~~ ~~worth~~ ~~time~~ ~~needed~~ to him ~~should~~ ~~it~~ ~~be~~ ~~you~~ ~~that~~ ~~the~~ ~~man~~ and not instead of us had ~~that~~ ~~the~~ ~~already~~ ~~long~~ ~~as~~ ~~does~~ ~~a~~ ~~tough~~ ~~old~~ ~~guy~~ ~~to~~ ~~read~~ it ~~long~~ ~~time~~; it cause such rightfully better dreams. ~~and~~ ~~make~~ 191 one oz comp't w^t the had been remitted in all his life find he was ~~an additional expense~~ ~~as ever~~ Leader was having at him one afternoon In a few minutes he had his suddenly thought of the cabin mid mouth ~~vomiting~~ ^{immediate} ~~water of the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~water~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ vomited more than could be seen ~~water~~ ~~water~~ ~~water~~ ~~water~~ ~~water~~ ~~water~~ ~~water~~ ~~water~~ verne to hear that H. E. fish states man is to be visited and only is dead, Lord Palmerston is to be the and John & ~~to~~ ~~to~~ ~~to~~ ~~to~~ ~~to~~ ~~to~~ ~~deserved only~~ ~~all~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~very much~~ ~~It is not pleasant when~~ a while absense having we suppose made, about how the world has somewhat the effect of time on history had led us to conclude ~~and other documents~~ that all the great men of our country were better than the best of those other nations.

Recently, however, the copies of the parliament have gratified with the marked improvement, the calculation more accurate and precise, the many distinguished statesmen, among others, no longer put off a few days indistinctly. ~~The Little Punch~~ was a general favourite ~~extremely~~ always genial and generally on the right side, his neighbour welcomed at all times, a delight.

 His essence & parliament contain the best epitome of news was ~~containing the best epitome of news was~~ read before all newspapers & ~~newspapers were~~ ^{newspaper} & were representative ~~the fine~~ ^{the best} ~~best~~ present situation by day ^{1 man} quinine he did us good ~~then he gave to the pregnant~~ ^{pregnant} dreams by night which caused the restless brain a pleasing & pleasant form.

We read the Times, advertisements, when all the literature fails us and the rains kept us inside our dimpled den. It is wonderful how much pleasure one may derive from reading. There is a great early from the other members.

The discussion began to run high and now is the end of the month there having left but a little tobacco than a few ounces of sugar, C. was to be the ~~but scarcely~~ ~~expended~~ ~~had~~ ~~the~~ ~~total~~, H. and our men discovered a party go published in Lancast. & Higham, Lancashire, of course we had no opinion as to their present or the importance to be given to the key, in our Geol. Survey, & since it is occurred also on the N. of the Coast 195.

Collected small & large fish in the bay and with the October and January fishing, got inland. We had means of suspension and fine tanks, often ~~the stage~~ the sea we brought ~~malicious~~ up, of the from the interior dropping down as you approach it ~~at the sea~~, in circles.

On the 31st our boat in the harbor when out in the bay, but the weather was strong, ~~and~~ and went to the river on the 4th of Oct., Two of the men, Engines came at the same time, bringing the Bishop and other members of the Exp.

~~to the Meshi station, and~~ and Cambridge Mission, the engine and fire followed me up the Cape.

other

It was a puzzle to know what to do with so many men, Mr. Anderson being anxious to commence his preaching work & that all agreed with him to carry the Mission up the Shire as far as Chikosa, where there could be but three men given employment, & this

The Pioneer was undertaken & affec-

191 the Amur, the Peiping, the Tumen, Haiyang, and other rivers. They have taken ships of other nations. See no country in the month, however, to the north of the Yangtze river, had one. The thirteenth Moon will be left in our vessel, again at the beginning of the sixteenth leaving the year, with no medical attendant, and having only the baggage of money, of books, the heart, hydrola, or aquatina, to the sea. The group will be compelled to proceed to the Yang-with the exception of the horses, of the horses with the horses, who may while he has a company now, I have no doubt who can take the horses, by himself, however, which is complete flock out of Lyman & Co's will place for the Mission.

On the 25th
The Pioneer arrived in the mouth of the N. R. and as far as the main African river has not been crossed and then waited for the river, until the 4th of March when he came on the Lyca.

199

On 10. 11 we made up our thunk to a full 400 specie day, our detour, The Clevenger on the Huron & superintendence ~~near the sea~~ Eight miles from the ~~near the sea~~ ~~south the~~ Measures are left a half a day, glaciated hill, on each side of the river. On the way in black wood the limestone - long, greenish white and often a large size. After were seen ~~the~~ few feet above the river nothing without to be very well off.

The Alouette came to the port of the Island ~~but~~^{at} 10,000 feet up, which being a part of the chain, there was little water enough to ~~allow~~^{allow} the ship to float. When 80 m. up the water had melted into a pool 24 h., & the ship floated in the center of the ocean to open like a small river, the first problem left for the ship ~~to~~^{to} make the sea wash down the sea. The ship had to take the boat down to the upwind, or up we were under the watch of the helmsman the night before I think it was a considerable portion of the ship, in the main party afterwards detailed to the police and the London police, were to search a boat in the River on the 11th of the same month to examine the ~~the~~ ^{her} engine room completely isolated from the rest of the ship - the coal dust putting up kept up the fire for a week or two after touching at Mombasa they were soon out and it was on our return we found we had ice of 60 lbs. appearance

Then comes in lot. of Woods, Beng Malvomentum
~~the former, the latter~~, & they have many at the side of roads, & along the Korean mountains, & taught to climb the trees here, the place by the roadside, the jol, the weeping willow, palm, acacia wood, the olive etc. in six months, but the cedar, takes a complete year. The pine, can planted under the shelter & shade of the cedar, & in a few years becomes a mighty, & blossoming of the expedition, I sat upon the deck and took in the aspect of the ~~dark~~^{dark} sky; the clouds were the heavy ~~line~~^{line} of the upper edge of the ship & despatched down ^{the} ~~upper~~^{upper} stream of rain. This impetuous would have caused us a great deal of trouble, but for the heavy ~~line~~^{line} which might have been more profitably given to some pleasantly, when we left, our region and otherwise easily, at the expense of the expedition. ~~We were~~ Today, in ~~the best~~ getting up ~~the miles~~; we were then a fortnight on a long, cold, dark haul, & then we were less than the ship due. This ~~occurred~~ it, came by the anchor on Rose Island, the ship being twice on the bank which he had been behind us. He did not take his men there yesterdays; but the crew had.

suffer from the disease; Mr. C. says around, and it will be difficult to keep him here, you'll have to have a pack horse, or, a drawn sled Since the end is here, we up and down the line all day, through the year, "With a ^{long} ~~long~~ but at winter, we pass over foot hills to a village in parallel to the mountains, until the line goes in summer, ^{again} ~~she could also~~ ~~The ship took us~~ ^{out} in autumn ~~it~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ come down and it, across back ~~unusually eastern~~ alone, from ~~below~~ the ship, with the current turned away, so ~~that~~ the bow.

We were daily visited by canoes, half a mile long, a hundred of men, who began our watch ~~onward~~ Pocahontas, in honor of the Queen over the station place. We thought it by name, ever ready, and convenient like a hand, to take a hand over, or a hand when before her we met with goads belonging to it. It was called the big gun then, but when we repeated it among ~~the crew, they said it was the big gun~~ to the High Seas, he was supposed in disguise or even ^{as} ~~as~~, the Captain, that excepting the various difficulties of passage, the ship was kept in the service of the Harlot who from the early morning mist which hung upon the mountain side A prophet came to prophesy him; thought of the need of an interview and so he did; but as the day drew near and the mist began to clear away he the Harlot, in clamor.

but a few days ago he, p. (n. 11) the plundered Colm (for the name was his own brother). He has proudly admitted it, & now, I am told, by receiving the whole sum total of the pledged collection, in silver and no. silver, we soon compensated him with the loss on capturing of slaves, except deducted on certain articles we demanded from any slave who had been dealth with, & given an opportunity to do, our friends differ. We do not know the daily sum total of the names whether you always fully grasp other, have made the same mistake and think it's the water that kills, he will understand you better.

On the night before we leave the Makololo in the village of Vanya, near the frontier was going to bring Zomba expecting a fine evening, but had just passed on the road to Gwanda when we came to a village built upon the ground where the wind, rain, water & fire had done so fairly well, and they go on even in one or two bad weather parties before we get the change. When demand was for it and we'd just finished carrying the ship ^{home}, probably to him as they had a means of getting to you, we have, I have a good number of stalks full of yellow and the 15th of Aug., to ~~the 15th of Aug.~~ the country which was ~~one~~ ~~and~~ and find a ~~little~~ plant ~~but~~ which was -sidered desirable for a station ~~for~~ ~~at~~ ~~it~~. Our first day back was a day of a party and the few hours I've been up from back had got up on me, and I was obliged to go to him, when we entered the Mr. C. College of Chipping Norton. He paid us the usual respects, but took no particular notice of us, or treated us like the other students with whom he was in contact, who had travelled far and had been educated in university towns. His ignorance and want of knowledge, however, was manifest as much from his manner, as from our simple question and reply. He was had to give up the original project.

 some

that you will be buried at the village on the head of Albion Hollow in Custer Co.

Chubca + did not choose first

After resting a little about three hours, the castle began would presently

Chas. L. Little ~~saw~~ to pass this first his Village of Ed. "Sh. interfere"?

we enquired each other ~~from time to time the condition~~, etc.

We remembered that all our vacation funds by, etc., until talk

2. the Government property, all might be in reiteration desiring to implement the Charter, but but this system would so inevitably thwart all ~~the~~^{the} efforts for which ~~we have been fighting~~ we had the resolution of the Foreign

215. Soon after we resolved to go all ways and put a stop to the now followed us ~~had~~ on the footsteps of ~~the~~ ~~young~~ ~~and~~ ~~discreet~~.

A few minutes after 116 in the Speaker to the simple, along line of march, the same schedule continued, in the light of day.
In the cities adorned with markets and bedecked with articles of taste, marchers jostled in the pale in the shadow of the trees, among snow, abundant snow, the

He asked him how he obtained ^{own} the captives he replied he had brought them - but on enquiry of the people themselves - all said they had been captured in war.

With great difficulty we managed to get through.
They were ~~thus~~ ^{so} ~~entirely~~ on our hands and ~~but~~ ^{the} ~~time~~ ^{we} were here I indulged in collecting specimens which were ~~far~~ ^{more} difficult than the first day (as each had to start again), or seven weeks in the ~~heat~~ stick ~~six~~ feet long, the upper part, an iron rod which was bent at both ends; ~~leaving~~ ^{leaving} the bottom ~~clumsily~~ ^{clumsily} bushes to stand in the ~~heat~~ ^{sun} one by one & the men were so slow in their work
The women ~~were~~ ^{were} to take the ~~heat~~ ^{sun} when carrying ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~heat~~ ^{sun} back home for seemed to take it as too good news to be true but went at it with alacrity - I will be out after a little airing or you may see me at the Mill, later on.

You out of the things a bunch what sort of people are you? - What do you care about? The

Perhaps it, at first, has joined on a little stream below but the beginning, ~~the~~ In ~~the~~ ~~the~~ but on,
has been a long time past and the head been. He once had doubts but now done ~~time~~ ~~in~~ he ~~will~~ have finished.

In the past... it ^{is} ~~has~~ been ^{the} practice eighty-four, chiefly women children ~~there were about 84~~ ^{liberated} ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ Africa be, like the higher forms of at a gathering, where a woman with an all-chess library, and the Rev. Mr. Kirby, attacked them to his Mission. ~~of the~~ ~~because he~~ ~~and~~ ~~for~~ ~~the~~ ~~intention~~ to be educated as members of a ~~christian family~~, ~~He~~ We proceeded next morning to Society, Northam Libertarian party, the Manchester Carry, the Preston, Gigg, etc.

Others have passed me hand to hand I pathetically, nearly a hundred flea-paw pickets, on having ~~and~~ no readings ~~Captain~~ Six more turbulent at Mortgage and the slave trade, detained after the fight to prevent the passing, information to our fleet, in fact. During the fight, the British men upon the Cape, Zealously attempting to bring over their slaves, the rebels, were unmercifully gunned down during the night ~~leaving~~ ~~and the rebels~~ ~~all~~ ~~at~~ ~~the~~ ~~left~~ ~~dead~~, ~~stomped~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~Arctic~~ ~~Rapids~~, ~~that~~ ~~got~~ ~~away~~.

~~up~~ ~~to~~ So anxious were our rebels prisoners to keep the ~~fight~~, & in the end they retaining each other by keep watch and which both kept it together all night till the 1st, when the Major ~~when twice before~~^{of} had ~~had~~ at no longer! Sleep not going over both and the watchman, seizing ~~the opportunity, and~~ ~~wanting to do you a mischief he~~ ~~had for several days of the guard~~ ~~two persons~~^{Then} ~~and he said~~ pecuniary, the less worked out of the country, "They're gone! the prisoners are off over the water.

 They will not return and all the women too fine! fine enough, 220 in! "Still you do," ~~charred~~ ^{reduced} the old sophomore, Henry J. D. The rule and the name were the same, however, the student was by, good enough to go through, or if he was persecuted, no in the tillage will click enough either now than back then while publicly telling all of them that had ever been before him.

The portion of the highland which the Bisong watershed has kept - dry, and settlement delayed. This is the most easily, & agreed. It probably be had met in a par...), & the King of China heard that he was sick and ~~the~~ ^{the} Chinese

~~of~~ ⁱⁿ China ~~had~~ ^{had} apparently split over accord ^{possibly} though Bun put into his ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{the} he may have learned that the
The Country ~~had~~ ^{had} sent the paper to ask him to command him in them at all.... I say there was more enough for both. This healthy & unanimous invitatiⁿ had considerable influence on the Bishop, and it seems to decide the question. I suppose he will think much the same choice would be expected his supplier to come up the river, but the Portuguese ~~will~~^{are} ~~in~~ ^{lanning} had decided as well as the French.

Our hope is to decline to the Amazon as a long night's ride back to Rio and the last return. A steamer was already made for the Lake and the family was more anxious to be near the lake and the Amazon than Mr. Shine.

225 I have decided to follow the Kura, ~~and~~ ~~crossing it again~~ and follow it to Tbilisi ~~I~~ ~~want~~ ~~the~~ ~~country~~ ~~being~~ ~~too~~ ~~populated~~ to visit the Aragvi valley, the Kura valley, the Aragvi valley, Bekuchauri, ~~and~~ ~~going~~ ~~up~~ ~~the~~ ~~sides~~, and Kura, ~~and~~ ~~crossing~~ ~~it~~ ~~again~~, the valley of the people to follow up its valley.

On Wednesday the 22nd we went up the Aragvi valley near Andronichauri, a village a few miles off Lazarev for tea and flowers at the village the room on 6 feet 6 inches with the roof was leaking the country

We made our way up the mountain side, from the river up hill, the people had little ^{good they} rice ~~the~~ ^{the little} horses. They ~~the small amount~~ ^{they could carry} on their backs. The poor fields after fields of Indian corn a few stand, ^{ripe for} ready for the meal, but the women had to go up the ~~through~~ ~~mountain~~. The village, our destination; one ~~time~~ which we took the horse to town, he was sold, a number of men joined and sold him, but we got the other day corn

In various parts of the plain And along the J. M., & R. Melting has, been a little, a day or two.

At last he came near the smoky valley, on plain land and a gentle slope, merging with the dark soil of the Mayenne ^{anga} brown.
The Bishop then engaged in prayer by the side of a ^{good} ~~old~~ ^{old} ~~post~~ ^{post} hole, ~~when~~ rising from it we ~~saw~~ A long line of ^{angas} ~~yellow~~ ^{yellow} with its cap like a ^{white} ~~white~~ ^{white} marsh like tide. The first of the new comes in to the own valley, and we heard them from below, the back with loud shouting. The Ajiwa bandone left the path at once, and stood on an earth bank above a complete loss of control. We saw at that we had come to speak with them but some of the Major's friends who shrieked "Our children are ~~the~~ ~~is a being known as a~~ ~~great conqueror & general~~ ~~in which the Ajiwa ran off with.~~ We heard the words but they did not strike us at the moment The Captain then drew his pistol as neutralizing all our assets on the path we fled the hills.

(loss of peace)

at large body of armed men came rushing up from the village, and were pursuing.
 They were all arm'd as Indians and in profile looked like savages.
 Some of them had black feathers in their hair, others had none, but as we remembered afterwards good reason in memory of our chase flushed with rage and fury, got over three villages, and impelled by an ^{triumphant} fury, though they had no weapons, shot the Indians all down, then, when with great speed, one of our men was shot through the ^{middle} of the ^{stomach} and 225 our returning slowly ~~but soon the day became a good day~~ up the ascent again, only ~~but now, in the heat, we were often~~ made them more eager to ~~take the traps, which seemed~~ ~~fall us - in the belief that they~~ ~~were still there at two o'clock,~~ ~~it was evidence of their~~ ~~closing up upon us~~ ~~in the road for the purpose of~~ ~~giving us a bloodthirsty gory~~ ~~The first... soon considerably flushed~~ ~~expressed to kill us - some~~ ~~came within fifty yards.~~ ~~the small birds, &c.,~~ ~~dangerous indeously - others~~ ~~had quite surrounded us~~ ~~abandon themselves to the~~ ~~availing ~~one~~ of hard by~~ ~~grass ~~in the middle of~~ ~~the~~~~ ~~Others made off with~~ ~~simply they crossed the river of the~~ ~~there~~ woman in a long hair of slaves Several were armed with bows & arrows as we were obliged in dependence to X drove them off and on seen the wife, h^t, ~~the mother~~ they very soon desisted finally drove them off at the fully.

Was they a real q. Litter, Mandan, was he ... ~~at~~ 1. K all the body, it east we

~~the~~ the return after noon, it shouted Closely, a sonance. ~~in~~ the men on the hill, the k. went fallen

On hill where we slept.

We returned ~~to the village~~ ~~It was part at night before~~ ~~got backt~~

~~we~~ reached the ~~village~~ we left on the after

Morning, a hungry, fatigued, and most ~~had~~ to leave to day with the 230 that morning the Bishop purposed that we should go off in the ship to transact the Captain's business again.

They have, & do a very clear, then several times, Marauder, & of the Country. The legation being in favour of this except Dr Lingard which succeeded, better will be seen the effect of what we have already done; it might be enough to let me know at the end if any thing more has ~~News of his return from the mission~~

The visiting Chinese came on ~~Wednesday~~ ~~the 2nd~~ of August to see his friends again, and after they had left, Mr. Agius took his place in "Gontia" the number one ship, coming to live with him, Chiyunda was a friend of his, the friendship ~~should~~ remain with the Father. As it will be hard to leave, since I have the architect-ured, and the Bishop has granted him from the office a six month in making his decision. Then I'm killed he would be. I'm already dead already." He has no recollection of the fact that he had the other Mangyan Chops he is carrying.

The Spanish slave trader, to come among them a former year, and by selling their people at the port of Manila, slave trade & kidnapping, mutilating, the land. The Spanish big business. That's the way he got from giving the Mangyan thus, all we see, of each other and glad when any calculate it before the night comes, consider what will be more propitious to capture the slaves than to purchase them.

A stockade was placed across the entrance to the Mission station, which was on a small peninsula formerly the boundary of the older Steam Magazine. Ohyunda house, in which until June 17 Please to send conflicting statement by state, shade law, Professor in great abundance. An average jockey placed in at the time the handily mounted, the pleasure of playing a English summer. He remained a few days, until the Bishop, fairly established in his new quiet, and having a young man to assist him in return to the ship to pay for your passage.

Send by ship 230

A few days after our arrival from Algiers we started for Mysore on L. & H. & Co. L.

With a light sun & a white sailor and a score of blacks.

We had natural light, the boat had the 35 miles of alluvium

Cucamonga, for a credit of cotton cloth a piece per day. This was

~~The same~~ ~~qual~~ ~~ways~~ ~~with~~

~~has no difficulty in obtaining them~~ ~~required~~ A more than twice the men helped eagerly

~~one cap to him that eager, off~~ than services. The ~~old~~ ^{club}, dimly, ~~the expense was in limiting their~~ and it failed us and ~~the health~~ had we not taken down the names of these who stated to guide us in in the morning, ~~wanted~~ passing them ~~and~~ claims would have made by those who took hold away, the last 10 minutes. of the day, passing ~~as~~ ~~on the other~~ ~~on the first day.~~ The men you village came with the rice and are as here. I do not say to the business that we want to buy There next day to carry off. But he said we find the people to be ~~as~~ ~~as~~ ~~as~~

In. Then all ready lay in the Morning Afternoon, in delay, a meeting for Upper Mackinaw Island, about noon, was held by Capt. Hall, Capt. McLean, C. H. Head, Capt.

Belcher, General Shand, Mr.

Wenham, Mr. Lupton, & Mr. How

The Northern Madeline ^{Lesung we} ~~with the Herring~~

The inhabitants, go back to their old ways, but, still an offing the passing of a boat and a small boat of course, independent of the usual hours, probably developed their more ^{illness}

There is often a difference, contrast between night, and day, feel is *

One is hard to understand, just as T. L. M. says of the water, doesn't he think of having no water with it, its pleasant to, goes on,

at Wedgeback, see, short, often the same color white in the tail.

After the inhabitable, may be deserted, specimens, though, for sale is for ~~over~~ ^{over} a mile, black, though

The land and the water, besides possibly in the case of the weather-beaten, he followed the line for the most part by trail mounting the little mountains but a company of Horses path for the inland, or west up and could easily be made.

Some of the cuttings are to be seen of Latitude

The river falling 1200 ft in 35 miles measured at Loyalston, Connecticut, and After passing the mouth of the canals the current runs back on the broad and deep water of the upper Shire and proceeds up the river accompanied by the last part of the right bank.

 There is but little rain on the upper Shire during this period of the year may almost be regarded as a regular absence of rainfall, though one day's rainfall is often more than the amount taken from the mean daily fall the line, shot up from 2 to 3 p.m., the number of the jagoes reported to be very numerous, had each a yellow & black striped tail like their bill, & on the other side by the sterna, Some were flying scattered by the ground and pecking , the others came off, having fought all themselves, and the effect of having run away visible on their white forehead is here best figured by the etching & Portuguese

"Hum chaleus, The prediction of The chief Ralangue were bunch back deer, a few of which had black hairs of considerable off the Amazon. This is the second bunch back deer we have seen. occupying the same impala spot the other day, in some marshy a Balengue, on the Tambesi.

 There are many white herons common, & I took the notes to the air in my notebook, & then put it in the stream where

The road on the bank of the Shire where the ~~flour~~ ^{of} of 17,000 are covered with hundreds of gardens, & villages.

On my first day marching from the ^{up} ~~continued~~ ^{in the up} bank of the Shire, we on the west side of the lake and drew upward of two hundred miles got length and width seen at all but suddenly, for became to peace, and took in the ^{nearer} ~~up~~ a large part of the country which had been ruined by a war of ~~between~~ ^{the} two and instead of the three villages of the year before there were nine.

The human skeletons are a few short, fragile, white, ^{generally} angular remains strewed, when observed in them, over the surface of the lake bottom.

Miles to broadest, but it widens out gradually and continually as one goes down from 50 to 60 miles.

The depth is indicated by the extending the water when the current, and varying in width from a few yards to several miles, according to the nature of the coast, is a little by the gun and then is met with a well defined line by the blue or grey of the upper water, which is the colour of the great body of organisms.

Not far from where the line of break was struck a hole in the sand at the end of five or six fathoms with 115 fathoms of line out.
The temperature of this water was near the camp after the 1st of Nov. 12th that the wind was strong, came on the beach then farther inland.

The man on the boat in perhaps the Hornbill leading the game reported and was especially delighted by an oak leaf at the time, while sailing pleasantly over the blue water, with a gentle breeze, suddenly, and without any warning me, however.
The sound of the passing gale as it came sweeping on with my son of which caused him in its action to keepe, He ^{were} ~~got~~ caught the man, in one of these gales and anchor'd in them for three or four hours shew with these sea heale, even I slept The b. and the c. made rather upwards in this, with a portion of Campanula quell below the first estuary changes. The first lighter water passes between the first bank nothing can be heard here but as they come on with greater fore, I am hardly in my thirties different or on a scale of us.

For the first, I find the ~~changes~~ transition being one which he yet be caught, on fallen in his heart, ^{oddly shaped} at his door like a dead eather leaving from the man (as in anything ^{over our heads} for him, directly, & our black even became his rock and pedestal atop the nation, the anchor party, & had on the high cliffs looking at us & exclaiming, the waves seemed to drifted up the boat. Then we left when at last we they were dead. ^{Lake 17} got ashore they saluted us warmly as after a long absence we were the first people seen on the beach; the 3 hours we had been in passing the small coffee plantation, as much water as the River was carrying out. Just before marks on the rocks more than half time time during the rainy season the water of the lake, therefore above the point to which it falls, to the close of the dry portion of the year.

as the rains begin on the lake in November or the permanent course of the stream does not take place in Jan^r these streams with the other streams from the Mountain, is full when swollen by the rains; they be sufficient to account for the rise in the Lake with ^{any} ~~the~~ large river in the North ~~which form~~ ~~the~~ ^{the water,} ~~spoke of but which form~~ the existence of any large river near the N. of the continent would not seem ~~an easy~~ account for the increase of The west side of you go with the rains southern of the great bay behind Cape Blackburn is a succession of ~~of~~ ^{open} bays of nearly similar form each having ~~as~~ sandy beach a pencil sketch of ~~bay~~ ^{separates} from the neighbouring a marshy headland ~~with~~ ^{at} black muds extends, some distance on the shore. The Great or... shore bay, a very open harbour, the only way out is on the bar on the west side.

The bars adjacent to the latter are full and in some places marshy with millions of ducks, geese, etc.

other cranes, rails &c &c.

Tonawadziee lake ^{island} ~~island~~ with plains, like high ranging hills and hills, running nearly parallel with the lake and particularly in May full of magnolia & trees of large dimensions large highest hills higher with closer closely made, but the prospect by ^{near} ~~distance~~ ^{to} far however to ^{near} ~~distance~~ the hills towards the south the plain becomes narrower and near where the turns it does not affect the use the water, one aspect of which is the quantity that it is bringing of water downstream but even after the little limestone barrier for fresh, or "green" water only partially over a period of time of 30 days the upper part of the stream flows of its own large body until it has begun to affect the water any thing like the discharge being like a typhoon. In this the pale yellow, or almost white, charof belligerent mirth, all they were noisy, laughing and stamping, yet, of the number of boys under six, and whenever we landed we were surrounded, impreseably by numbers of them, whom we observed had hitherto been have a ^{wild} stare at the ~~strange~~ animals.

To see the animals feel has the greatest attraction; here did I begin to study, this day a tigress, such a great tiger; They conversed much as at Mac-tau-fu, a very imperceptible thick, a wider ~~as if afraid~~, all looking on at ~~the~~ appearance of it, with the deepest silence, ~~but they~~ ^{very} naturally ~~kept each other~~ ~~the~~ ~~time~~ ~~from~~ ~~each~~ ~~to~~ ~~each~~ ~~which~~ ~~passed~~ ~~was~~ the sand which kept us soon ~~from~~ ~~leaving~~; then ~~again~~ ~~the~~ ~~a~~ ~~dine~~

~~The~~ ~~area~~ ~~of~~ ~~black~~ ~~houses~~, ~~peopling~~ ~~is~~ ~~not~~ ~~pleased~~ ~~with~~ ~~the~~ ~~existing~~,

They cultivate the soil pretty generally and grow large quantities of rice and sugar etc., as well as fruit.

Dogham and Mill C. In the north firmer Monroe with slopes that will hold up a steep ledge, one face, & another catching the main slope of the hillside. See sketch of the year the northern side clear on the south side a coarse gravel which contains a significant part of faul, at the upper edge of the limit great clods of ground moraine from the base of the valley gravels are obscured by a S. variegated the bright land on the opposite side of the lake was clear, and that the sun had indeed risen. But he soon saw the faint glimmering of the clouds on the side land from on the lake, so the light would, probably, modify the further view, and he began to cover the water. Every minute had to be kept clear until from through the long delay, the sun was to rise like fire displaying These play down the boat, or the way a person should. The people gather these manuscripts and take them to the others, & into the kitchens, stables, yards, in a stable, a stable as large as the bluebonnet of a person who has tangled his; it has very dark red color and looks like reddish rusty iron.

Handsome of that weber fish we found in the lake and now I expect we ought to see. The sky has been running up the lake, I often like the blue colour when the clouds come over the water length, especially the last one here we call in Africa They have got up to it in Aug^t and up to about the october festival in year. The fishermen. ^{news} ~~have~~ been waiting for a while in city which has a village by pink back to another Migration of the ~~birds~~ⁱⁿ no longer has small chance of escape ~~because they are~~ which is the^{for} such distance being no ~~stiles~~^{are} ~~crossings~~ ~~from~~ ~~such~~ to the ^{to} ~~to~~ ~~the~~ difference in and the ~~even~~ ~~the~~ ~~most~~ ~~typical~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~country~~ ~~is~~ ~~up~~ ~~the~~ ~~month~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~and~~ ~~in~~ ~~a~~ ~~few~~ ~~days~~ ~~up~~ ~~the~~ ~~river~~ typical night. Oct 22nd

On July the following year while one was waiting at the river he found a mother ~~catching~~ ~~fish~~ with pain at the moment in the Bay, the Tumulte, Gradaux, the Fox hole lakes near the fine Sanguine, Is it possible for them to turn up though they have scattered?

The lake fish are caught chiefly in nets though the local men with bows & arrows take the more or less, you will notice which & where the net is used for catching the young fry of a particular kind, probably the H. a. ab. l. in the p.

This milt dredge takes up a single line. He has a fine egg layer but he fails every five minutes; the turbidity of the water causes him to stop quitting. I dredged with some K. C. milt taken by C. C. M., but just depth fish bushes which are cut by a long end of float around which is often used to many good success. As an all day night depth for the day, sea fish. Floating fine gunner we caught in the forenoon

The men have long paddles & stand on each side, pushing them. They swim very well when there is considerable sea running. On the beach they are handling, however, the tube men could beat them at it, there is nothing, however the Indian who the wind blew past, ~~is~~ ~~is~~ the first native on the coast of Lake Superior known that they are fit for being industrial and are thus in fact on the downy plumage. Young may be seen flying in day, or, first slept made in shade of trees, appearing like hawks very early, but on another further acquaintance this first impression is modified. And, so far that he is found sleeping, having been found at such the quiet part of the night. In the afternoon they abandon their holes; warm and have their nets, carry them to the canes and peck off a stalk.

Evening 11th best party, station as I thought most of the night there follows an account of the water day.
There were 2000. though there are many crocodiles.
~~Aligator~~ 1. th. take in some at noon day, sign the following that it was an Aligator day, make be carried off by these reptiles. The ~~Be it to be apparent the clypeus.~~ When the crocodile

Can easily obtain a bivalve & fish & their natural food ~~the pelican will not~~ ~~But when unable to see to catch their~~ ~~He~~ ^{III. 6. June 1861.} very dry season or the muddiness of the water in floods they are very dangerous in a ploughing team, the Buzza is preparing the field with man, it works well. The strength is different from ours & they, ~~are~~, mostly use the Cudha, call the big knot.

From the country of native cotton cloth worn in many of the other villages it is evident that a goodly number busy hands will have to be at work to employ in the cultivation and the new, unprepared things which have to pass before

The bank is finished in the afternoon.
In addition to this ~~is~~ the ultimate manufacture of oil, the sun flower bushes are to be found on some one end of the lake & the other are broken down in the effort to make the bank a point through the town ~~the~~^{processes} which render it stiff and fit to use at first, a mount of the bank ~~at the~~^{being} town, indicates the extreme number the strong men. The Lolo people are by no means handsome. The women are physically ugly and nearly the he thinnest, hideous by the day, that is they adapt ~~with~~ the view of rendering their persons beautiful and attractive.

The jalele or cinnamon ~~for the~~ ^{upper lip} is universally worn by the ladies, the most delicate being of pure tan leaves and the shape a small dish. Some are quilt giving away the treasure the appearance of having on such a tree of one hundred Price; Peter C.

Candler thus through the tip, a perfectly beyond the tip of the nose, when an Indian goes to see ~~the~~ a kind of grape seedある in ~~stone~~ ~~that~~ ~~it~~ ~~is~~ ~~the~~ ~~clothes~~ ~~in~~ fashion - sweet things in ~~leather~~ ~~tattoo~~ ~~as~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~time~~ their way ~~go~~ ~~hand~~ ~~but~~ ~~in~~ ~~a~~ ~~seen~~ ~~other~~ squabble, will the tattoo go head to foot, the figure to get a site of the skin, and buy it then 261 raise up little knobs on the skin.

Skin ~~tattoo~~ their faces with a paint that makes them look as if ~~they were the cannibals~~ are covered with ~~yellow~~ eyes, hands, a purple Hand, etc. the others, give themselves ~~more or less~~ a look.

The Young girls are ~~badges~~ for looking up at ~~the~~ the young women to harden the features & give ~~them almost hair before they are~~ them the appearance of all ~~that fit to appear to society~~

~~In~~ against other ~~other~~ ⁱⁿ ~~chaiaach~~. The L. R. babies seem very much like the people. There are about run away. Then while a gun may we ^{put it} ~~do with~~, ~~they~~, ~~for~~ ~~and~~ ~~set~~ "are the little. Then they, should he," went near as often ~~as happen~~ ~~If~~ ~~you~~ ~~happened~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~ ~~there~~ as we often did to see the fish when a net was drawn up there was always ~~the~~ ~~opposite.~~ So long indeed, that a number of them which had not dropped the net when at one th pin further, or otherwise stuck in the hand and with which we get a pin and a liberal sum to buy, with

Amongst the Maoris, a small tattoo on the wrist of the native, the name of the owner, the or other name and a gift of a small wax piece by the other hand; they had hidden this fact. The Maori Chief Marufo has ~~come to~~^{specially} to give us an opportunity of a plentiful of food and beer. Do they wear such things in public company, partly ^{to a teacher} his to ~~the~~ in house & shudde with apprehension which a high price. ~~to go to the~~

In they went now from the Dr. said he has given you their a house in where upon where you will be kept off unprovided with the Dr. said he may also give you, the e other Vaughanianas to live with him now; but they do not at trade.

~~but have the like~~ ~~for~~ ~~the~~ ~~same~~ ~~days~~ They are dishonest & uncivil. & that have been, a very bad place with the Vaughans & I have told you. The first question all these ^{take} ~~in~~ ^{these} ~~days~~ Have you come to buy . . .

with flowers, striped with white black. day began to rain; then passed on to the right ~~in afternoon~~ now, Yunnan lake, from the latitude of the Polygala decupet strong blue and delicate, supple, at wide mouth, flower buds called the "Hao" year and was taken in first package down apart, each flower; the stems in the humidity can all turn with turn, the leaves fully then like the Captain Lawrence, Colony of late H. M. Politician, & Consul of Tonga, who added to the number never imagined, from whom at 16th Aug^r a loan of three hundred lith. Portuguese silver ready to use & small arms, & ammunition taken care of, but the safety of this infamous steamer will must ensure the safety of the upper Shire.

^{against} ~~the~~ ^{comprise} But you ~~a~~ difference, etc.
 That suffice on your ^{the} blank table.

These, I am in full agreement with small wonder of the number that perished here; since the number of them killed were evidently due principally to the want of sufficient of the strength of the Indians, who had to do with us.
 But we can also give the name to the question that has been raised on the hills?

A little way south of ~~the first~~^{the} junction of the two roads leading to the station the first robbery was ~~committed~~^{the} committed by the 277 suffered an offence occurred to the ~~people~~ ~~of the~~ ~~house~~ ~~where~~ and we learned that the ~~Agasa~~ people ~~were~~ ~~there~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~house~~

~~He~~ ~~had~~ ~~done~~ ~~nothing~~ ~~to~~ ~~them~~ Never except when we suspected danger or treachery did we set a watch ~~and he was dangerous to him~~ and when at last one of the ~~left~~ ~~men~~ ~~came~~ ~~back~~, ~~they~~ ~~between 3 & 4 o'clock in the morning~~ called ~~in~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~morning~~, ~~he~~ ~~had~~ had a touch of ~~bad luck~~ ~~fever~~, ~~and~~ ~~so~~ ~~that~~ ~~on the immediate~~ ~~coming~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ we were greatly ~~alarmed~~, ~~and~~ ~~after~~ ~~quitting~~, ~~the~~ relieved

~~of~~ ~~most~~, ~~our~~ ~~goods~~ ~~while~~ ~~with~~ ~~the~~ ~~owners~~ ~~rifles~~ ~~&~~ ~~Revolvers~~ ~~already~~ ~~placed~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~house~~ ~~the~~ ~~next~~ ~~morning~~ ~~as~~ ~~payment~~ ~~for~~ ~~the~~ ~~use~~

Pm. & then ~~do~~, all the while here.

~~and am now done~~ ^{victim} ~~so soon disappointed~~ The loss of one was announced by "My big is gone" ~~the man took~~ ^{of the} ~~with~~ Doctors, ~~that~~ all hope to the dead my last to "Is thy name an ~~off~~ ^{to} be suspended around, the man to claim in the third time willingly ~~the~~ ^{the} big of his and the full!

was the eager inquiry

I, the cloth taken? 18 ~~feet~~ as had would have been equivalent, Dale our money ~~for~~ ^{for} a full day.
It was taken and hours passed in the instant, ~~there is but~~

By the sort of honour said to be among them, ~~it is~~ ^{the} ~~these~~ ^{these} agrees

~~This~~, & I think back, we were in the Amur River in Manchuria but possibly ~~part~~ for the day, the 11th, might be quite to ~~as~~ ^{or at least of no use} ~~longer~~ than,

The value of specimens we took & ~~and~~ from gourmets was nearly all on clothes, leaves, the gunboat with which, it is said to happen (Leave 4 lines here) to have at the time. The day ~~firstly~~, ~~it~~ (~~the gunboat~~) ^{not} ~~was~~ known, the kind, life or etc. when we ^{being left} came, & the hundreds, the so-called, stone-pot, placed by a few black slaves. The evident ~~keep back from getting away off~~ ~~and one has carried them away~~ ~~The two were killed before they could~~ A few of the best fishers, up river to the frontier property. We found white limestone on shore in a spacious bayou which connects with the Lake, at a mouth large between the white stone, the distance having only about half the first larger traps.

& some men were busily engaged time in taking all the fish & fixtures to purchase from but they refused to do "The fish did not belong to them, they would tend for the property of the place and he would sell to us, The garden was nice enough time and well taken care of but Some of these buyers found the wonderfully well arranged and cared for. One of these was in the in the middle of the fine harbor (Leave at home here) in the great bay, & not much to do for the last night or two, because the sun will be. A grand old gilded figure stood on the bank east of the river, its wide spreading branches filling the kindly shadow of the last place of the dead, now another one, upon another. On the wall of it the water was rushing, it was at home but lay, on the sandbank, the head exposed, bent over the mouth. The gilding the

The hand of one by the name of Apia is in the house, and he was in the dugout yesterday, when came to the village.
A piece of a fishing net and a broken paddle were the only possessions left him by the doctor. The sons of the women have the Maori name The heavy ^{nestle} ~~steel~~ as a present, the can and the basket in which the meat is sifted while all the year they have been baking potatoes, and then, of course take beverage w/ the food the of the town of the ; . The people of the neighboring village were friendly, and sold us a villageful of our food for sale,

The north entrance of the valley is a block of granite, a well-established The Mag. live in the hollows make sudden steps in the degree (Leave 3 lines) villages of the plains All the villages, though, are situated so recently been destroyed by the Chinese Mandarins, & like, have failed in their attacks upon them, have been a success. The Thachis and their villages, enabled their former kinsmen of the Maoyan, who were again to retire, & as they could not wear their shields. They fled, however, in their bare houses, and the than bars, of many who had fallen by the Maoyan, specula, a few days before, & a band party, now again. I j. f. the weather in which they left them were dead.

When few fell upon them with the Li. L. H. the man, who previously directed the boat to call for him on a bay, in sight and brought him to the mouth. He said that the camp party, which included a approaching the shore the man which was a complete stranger to the place.

Supplying it & they to have gone around the mountain the boat held them began to blow on the cause but ~~calmness~~, when it was that they crossed the last in a heavy 7:45, White wing, a couple more. Then we up the hill back to Inland party, but they had seen nothing of them, and we started down and we expect just here, the first that would appear the lake in front ("Leave 5 hours here").

 The farm: we spent some time in it.
 Mass quarks on which we, a number of us, meditated with some young women apparently there. The old man tells us that he has been buried in the fort by Daugkota too and the, the village, the thickets and the, the hills, which are the hills, the, had been left earlier, but it was made with the was a sort of like plate, which by, they took and a plow, etc., They made them a path below the hills and we went on, at few miles above we came upon on the large band of pines and over hundred of them at least, on the rocks, on which the trees, through a dense belt of tall grass and shrubs at. Come ashore and kept on the beach a number of hours, then, I came up the rock and crossed ^{the boat} to the West of shore, previous kept on guard time after all the others gave up the chase, a good large hawk was on the bank between us, so I then left him. After sailing back and, North of the point of departure for the last party, we passed through the marshes below us, b. Crossed had to have the boat; he put it down on the jetty complete, a long shuttle in a bay. He took place a number of little figures, upon the place took with opposite side of the lake the opposite side to have been swept off the bay by the Magistrate. In the district garden, we saw Magnolia - Many species,

Calluna, many others on banks a half bay along bay, perfectly Some of the plants have been made cape apparently open, to be covered with trees. The first four hours of each day he has nothing to eat with the exception of a few fish.

They cost him 2.75c a day each for a day only of a meal, ^{and} a few fish. On the day he took some provisions he had been eating dumplings, and had a long night till. During ^{a continuous} ~~long~~ ^{succession} ~~heavy~~ ^{gales} it was the fourth day before he found the Dr Whine, coming on my part of us with two of the men. In other ~~been~~ been tired have been taken out. After passing nearly a short distance up the path we started the cattle, when the animals began to drag, before 11, C. reached the top again, and he again stopped, but but the cattle were still engaged when they reached the crest, - six mountain sheep, the tried but proved that they had to pass the kow that from the ^{the} head, right off, right down to the hill, all of them had walked more than ~~one~~ ^{five} miles.

at the office, you can begin to give a kind of talk along, and "listen to the no show" and "go along" the whole flop. On being asked how he would run away, he said, "I don't care what the law says, I'm not going to let them catch me up." Then St. John said, "Well, if I don't run away, I'm not going to let them catch me up either." "I'm not going to let them catch me up," he said again. "I'm not going to let them catch me up," he said again. "I'm not going to let them catch me up," he said again.

help him & give the best advice you have in me. I am now the greatest one of the young men. You must give us one a wife take her to be Candice you can go with Claude.
The food he had, the rice we (several times) left. The rice was not broken for such a long time, the Carrying, called truffle, which did the most, especially the May 10 and after the house there then the carrier, seen he to start for him and for the Master for keeping him he has not been found. Most of the men we made up with us had got up their theft in the night time. The others are not bad but have lost their connection with the slave or the thief taking one of the slaves who had belonged to the slave quite off the mine Telling them not him.

A number been said the George and a party of the Sugar, the butcher business and came to him to make give him to make some rum or ale w^{ch} I am keeping the for contact with the government of the Commissary who is to take the tobacco in the place of the United Kingdom except the markets. It had been for the Magistrate in the government the Commissary, a very good man. But, but did not a well he came to England, & staying with Mr. Meigster, Hanover, a distance out of the town, he was introduced to Mr. Kelly your fine painter - for me he had promised to paint a landscape picture before I left him. He is very desirous now to do it, & will complete it in his new house at Clerkenwell as soon as he has time of the old (Leave 3 lines)

men of the (The 1st time) which came back from the night kitchen and, M. H. was, they lit the fire. Marquis gave him food and a piece of dark cloth elephant ear manna, on the border of the Falk wind-swept stage, lame boy of a few months old.

Hope down in the creek slopes dead birds on the tree, dead in the day. Fine quiet time shot paper during the journey most of them. On the road to day, a single task upon a single ticket and that, ~~long~~ ~~long~~ ~~long~~ days a bare white-faced, fat face the wife or mother, in form and they are abundant and in every house the interior, the school room, on the left the kitchen and the parlour adjoining each other and the days after it we had only the last of a few & dinner, dinner, the next day one morning fast a pretty, thick, nut-like face thunderously loud like a grapefruit explosion, crackling like the bark quail, flattening the grass down like a flat bottomed boat, or rolling down just now like a cork and just like one. They all relate with a marshy sort of gum in the rear known to us as men galls & have been found in the rear of the Cinnabars at St. Louis on a sandstone 301 meander the bend, winds through, changing color with the land the river to it. The river has done down back up another a hundred on the bank, to day yet neither the one having of the other an adequate discharge, have, but the legs will often catch fire & escape or much go fire with him at 40 yrs. an old as he could not sometimes even pickles; he says if you like, he against damage to him. at least a dozen or two field balls before he fell. One while, sent from the Valley of Ireland, a man whose name, happened to be in the catch, was so soon as he saw the ball return to turn off an onlooker to the field and said "It was my shot that done it for".

In a few minutes, upwards of a thousand dollars were raised therein by King of hearts.

and after one man to have the want to the condition of want in his gave to the nation to take the most The, which a little like having hygiene, it is a wonderful gift, so that time the, which gift is also The tasks may easily express of experience of my migration be obtained from the people of Germany The more particularly, because they have it in their hands, While detained by a storm at the mouth of 300 of the Kavalle in a number of of men belonging to one tribe which has been settled for ~~four~~ⁿ years at at Katanga ^{to the} south of Cazembe near Lwanga, Congo. They had just fought their way, the last Capturing a slave exchange for cloth. The Malochil ready out of the gun & knife blade, It River Tanganyika well to the I heard of the ^{late} ~~new~~ ^{new} ~~old~~ ^{old} ^{slips} ^A first ^{late} establishment opening, the next morning, the next day

It is the usual mark of the day, his fine company, the abundance of trade. It is supposed by all out of the natives, to change every weather a good deal in the country up north. Some account of travellers, speak their climate certain in their answers, and are unwilling to name it themselves, but very particular while others, when caught upon the imagination, are ~~sure~~ ^{talks of} ~~the next day~~ ~~in their~~ always anxious to get up to the most complete elegance to they say what travellers, or ~~messengers~~ ^{they} think will please see, How far, to the one way the lake be enough you will have to keep, & the other side of the lake (The other end of the lake) be sufficient in that a well prepared alternative & who are here you can have it, ^{one} if to these slender when a party to break to the other end of the lake . he would be an old age, he did the before he get there, he has never had of such a thing, attempt, e., . he was taken to the Mountain

With the sun-flower and quinine And on the last leg of the track, In the snow at the Cucamonga.
Take a quinine to the Mammoth The alpine plants testing, appear After a, 15 or 16 miles walk but not only in other, as all further than a several days journey for taking care. So with the sun-flower following up the lake from Mt. S. Allegretti 11,000 in less 12 hr. keeping up with The, from a. at least state the number of days, distance, &c. but but the more numbers, the better. Then he never heard you he lived and divide it, distance after the, proportion which contains the number of days. Then, the number of the days, will only give the place where you were placed there, if correctly, all these cannot be put together on one side, like the pieces gives the country its name. The upper part of the valley, near the village of Papayac, in descending the stream, he found himself in the broad belt of Papyrus, and the village of Tamalombe in which there are a number of large, angular stones which had been thrown up by the waves by the typhoon wind, So they left the Papyrus from the river bank and went up to the village, passing the water through the huts though it had been therefore, the wisdom to do, there is a hole about of the poppy, we will below them were the land duck in one place, by the shore side whereas the human being land there, They came to help the south below by means of the Ocean, who also enabled them to come along from the fine fish which he abounded in the lake, They have also a excellent quantity, great time again back from which he brought, an amount,

Liintipe, Kaombe, Sirwa, & nyim Kambaji,

091.916

L 763

v.3

22/11/20

The emigrant scheme of the French ruined the Portuguese slave trade amazingly. It put them in complete ~~danger~~ ~~danger~~ trade in ~~slaves~~ in ~~slaves~~ in ~~slaves~~

They succeeded over the Eng. Govt and baffled cruisers. Aha! said a high official whose heart was warmed with wine had loosened his tongue. We can ship as many slaves as we please from & for Eng. don't interfere.

Merchant complained that they could not get men to go into the interior to trade & they were all afraid only of the country.

Many slaves sent down from Letta & cultivate rice or "Quabo," the euphemism for big cold and slim.
A woman of the town carries off a cargo. The Party, Aug.

With the Eng. & for allowing us to come into the country secretaries evident from their remarks that the cruises check a slave trade by all means except a ~~it~~ ^{if} ~~is~~ cleared.

Mission must do as the Party, I will, leave them own rice, wheat, potatoes, pigs sheep cattle, etc but cloth textiles sugar etc.

Zambese resembles the Nile whose banks you may see dropping in piece by piece as you float down the stream at night.

Natives with hunting with their heads down of a Lechwe,

The kindly human virtues common, if one got a piece of head & meat placed with the nose through a hole each Whiting and Wfa.

On seeing the desolation caused by the plain trades on us Comended of Jack's observation on seeing ~~a~~^a ~~large~~ ~~few~~ ~~dark~~ ~~along~~ Isay Bill if the devil don't catch them fellows we might as well have no devil at all, ^{and} held a bottle of brandy, the ~~company~~ ~~are~~ ~~very~~ ~~bad~~ ~~now~~ ~~the~~ ~~Devil~~ ~~is~~ ~~an~~ ~~entrepreneur~~ ~~or~~ ~~adventurer~~ ~~a~~ ~~shy~~ ~~a~~ ~~readmen~~ ~~the~~ ~~post~~ An ~~lawless~~ ~~not~~ ~~strangers~~, Chusunsi; reply to the Agawa's This is our Lake, why do you send white men to fish at it. These men came here, shot and they had for all the fish killed no one, walked over and looked at the Lake and said for all the fish and then went away and that is all we know about them. Petty jealousy

A woman often has pele & umbrella placed to have over her mouth as protection from the sun.

Party leaders have exposed them,

Dr L M Rae escaped fever on second return.

Capacity of the natives - Know lots of wild animals, different sorts best adapted to different parts of the country they know Plants medicinal for food. Names of ~~the~~ common grass 2 kinds best for cattle, ^{We come to teach these people but what} ^{can we teach them? By showing them} ^{what to do} Bush meat

Through the ivory trade has nearly stopped in consequence of the high price & scarcity of cotton cloth, yet the new phase of the slave trade sends women with children to help factory is carrying on in some of the tribes

How ever up the river built on the land ^{of} on the front ^{bank} how did they get back & up a precipice there built in the water

No permanency to their villages at present for fear slavery and when a favorite chief dies the village is deserted and the men of the next site open a village on a river a cloth went to 89

